SKIRVIN

Our editorial department has thrown into the vocabulary a word which has sent the boys scurrying. Websterward, and you won't find that one officially recorded. It is riposte, used where the high-brow accent has a curl to it; among the crowd so far removed from the proletariat that you couldn't reach 'em with Jacob's ladder. It's a stratosphere, a sort of a spongy reply with a jitter in it. You feel it when it hits you. Being meek and humble, and of contrite spirit, I couldn't have a comfortable association with riposte, unless someone metaphorically inflicted a pedal pressure. That could start the fire. But let me tell you, if you ever encounter a riposte, you better carry along a lot of material spontaneously combustible. You'll need it. Modernized, riposte is the old "lay on McDuff" stuff.

The Elk clubrooms have been so thoroughly renovated that I don't feel at home.

This is a great month. Monday being Labor day, we won't work—much. The seventh is Jewish New Year, fifteenth Yom Kippur, seventeenth Constitution day, the twenty-third ushers in autumn, on the twenty-ninth Balboa discovered the Pacific ocean, and we have two pay days. I'll say it's a great month.

My friend "Ted" Tedford, The Journal's mechanical superintendent, is on his way to the International Typographical Union convention, meeting in Louisville, Ky. He said he would get back if no one got in his way.

And it was Harry V. Hanson from the Anaheim district who brought over the bad news last Tuesday that he thought he detected a slight evidence of a desert wind. This is Thursday, and I hope he was mistaken.

It is said, by whom I do not know, that one-tenth of all the food raised in the United States year after year goes to feed destructive insects of all kinds amounting to $3,000,000,000 a year. Now, may I ask you, Kenny Adams, how are the rats getting along?

The months are gliding swiftly by, and the month for the English walnut harvest has arrived. It is a great industry, but I never talk about it without getting some opprobrious reply, and yet the nut as food value is more concentrated than cheese, is composed of water, protein, fat, carbohydrates and ash, and if there is any more, the dietician can tell you.

I had the unusual experience of standing up in a Santa Ana bus last Wednesday morning on a downtown trip. Now I ask you—how far over is the depression? In the afternoon of the same day I had 12 seats at my disposal. Now I again ask you—how far over is the depression?

And then there was an unknown who sent Alex Brownridge an invitation to attend a revival meeting at the FREE Methodist church.

The entries on the credit side of life's ledger are usually made after we are trying to make a settlement on the debit side of eternity, so I suspect.

As a labor-saving device the lawn sprinkling system is a success, and as a pedestrian shower it cannot be classified as a failure.

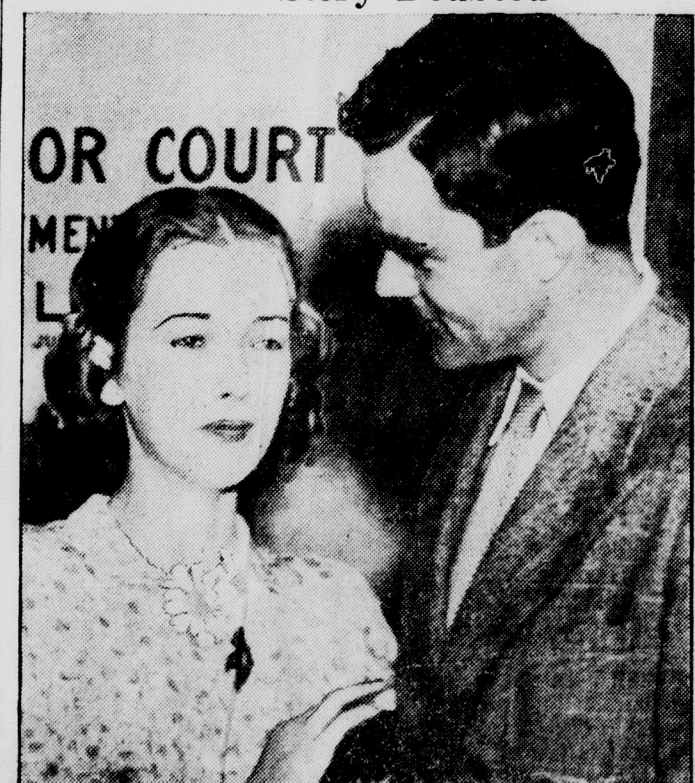

And in the good old summertime we start to talk about orchard heating. But it takes more than conversation to defeat Jack Frost.

Bill Weiland came home from a trip to Temple, Wyo., to tell me that he saw a lot of prairie chickens, but the law said he couldn't shoot 'em. And in the presence of Stormy Gordon, who an qualify as a witness, he told a

SUB ATTACK CREATES ITALO-BRITISH RIFT

Attack Story Doubted

State Orders Ban On Walkashow

Told by Attorney General U. S. Webb to "clamp down," District Attorney W. F. Menton and Sheriff Logan Jackson today had ordered closing of the Seal Beach "walkashow." But a court battle loomed today before the issue can be decided. Injunction proceedings may be filed against Menton and Jackson by promoters of the event, permitting the show to operate until a superior court judge determines whether the walkashow is a public "exhibition or contest of endurance," prohibited by state law.

The attorney general ordered closing of the show, by telephone yesterday afternoon, after Menton had told him about circumstances under which the event is operating. Jackson had appealed to Webb for aid in having the show closed, after doubt had been expressed that the show was an endurance contest or exhibition.

Menton and Jackson then went to Seal Beach and ordered Promoter Hal Ross to close the show at 5 a. m. today, its customary closing hour for the night's performance.

Shows have started at 1 p. m. daily, with 15-minute rest periods each hour for contestants. Promoters contend the show is not an endurance contest or exhibition because no prizes are offered and entrants are not required to keep moving, and may enter the event on any day.

Only alternative to injunction proceedings would be to continue operation and submit to an arrest, thereby bringing the case in for a decision on a habeas corpus application.

Arrival of Iron Lung Saves Life of Second Denver Baby

DENVER. (AP)—Little Shirley Krause, two-and-a-half-year old infantile paralysis victim, was placed this morning in an "iron lung" speeded here from Chicago by streamlined train.

As soon as the ton-and-a-half lung reached Steel Memorial hospital, where both Shirley and Maybelle Outcalt, 15, are receiving artificial breathing treatment, the little girl, tired but determined, was lifted into it.

She was taken from an emergency wooden respirator into which she had been placed a few hours earlier when it arrived from Toronto by airplane.

Arrival of the respirators definitely ended the possibility physi-

ENGLISH NAVY RUSHES TO AID SHIPPING

Freighter Sinks From Damage By Torpedo

LONDON. (AP)—Britain, roused to indignation action by the mysterious sinking of a merchantman and the close escape of a destroyer from unidentified submarines near the Spanish coast, ordered her fleet reinforced today in the western Mediterranean.

Informed circles said the government suspected Italy of responsibility for strange and repeated assaults on shipping of many nations off the Spanish coast, on the narrow British empire "life line."

TANKER SINKS

The tanker Woodford, flying the British flag, went down off the east coast of Spain, torpedoed yesterday by a Spanish submarine, craft named "Zigzag," where the British destroyer Havock helped the warship dodge a torpedo Tuesday night.

The Woodford's second engineer was killed and six of her crew were injured.

The order for reinforcements was announced after tense cabinet members had attempted at two long sessions to shape the empire's policy against the attacks on her ships.

ENVOY SUMMONED

The Spanish government ambassador was summoned to the foreign office shortly before the second cabinet meeting adjourned early this afternoon.

One British flotilla, consisting of nine destroyers, now is engaged in British patrol on the western Mediterranean. Two others, totaling 17 ships normally based at Malta, are on an autumn cruise off the Greek and Italian coasts.

Apparently the reinforcements for the Spanish patrol will be drawn from the cruising flotillas.

HALT EPIDEMIC IN CHICAGO

CHICAGO. (AP)—Dr. Herman Bundesen, city health officer, said today the infantile paralysis situation was "well in hand" but that the board of health's edict postponing indefinitely the reopening of schools would stand.

Lifting of the ban, he said, would depend on a day-to-day study of case reports and the rate at which the disease declined. He added the disease usually reaches a peak early in September and is checked by the advent of cool weather.

"No widespread epidemic will result, because we have taken every precaution," Dr. Bundesen said.

Wife's Ill Health Causes Shooting

SAN FRANCISCO. (AP)—The police said today that Saul David Landecker, 72-year-old San Francisco stock broker, fatally shot his wife and then killed himself as a result of desperation over his wife's broken health.

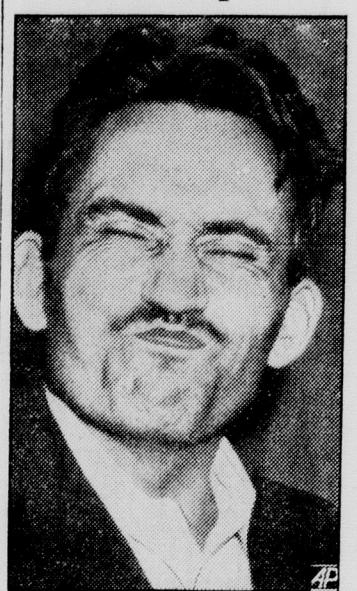

Landecker, a partner in a Montgomery street firm, was sprawled dead on the floor of his wife's bedroom in their Nob Hill apartment when police entered the place last night. Police Inspector B. C. Lally said. Mrs. Fannie Landecker, 62, the wife, a semi-invalid, was unconscious in her bed. She died shortly afterward.

Free Director In Attack Trial

LOS ANGELES. (AP)—Ray Randolph, Hollywood dance director, has been acquitted of charges he attacked Charlotte Swett, 17, Chicago schoolgirl.

Judge A. A. Scott said he was not convinced of the truth of the girl's story that Randolph induced her to remain overnight in his apartment and then attacked her. Randolph denied her charges.

Accused Cop-Killer

Despite his critical condition, Edward P. Simpson, accused slayer of a Newton, Mass., policeman, makes a defiant, angry face at the jeering crowd as he is escorted from jail to hospital. One lung collapsed, authorities feared for his life due to complications from a bullet wound in his neck.

MRS. HEWITT MARRIED TO DR. BARRETT

Coming as a surprise today to her many Santa Ana friends was the news of this wedding yesterday afternoon of Mrs. Lena Hewitt, prominent local clubwoman, and Dr. Ralph R. Barrett, Huntington Park physician.

The marriage occurred at the Santa Ana home of Mrs. Hewitt's son, Roscoe G. Hewitt, with the Rev. O. Scott McFarland officiating, and only close relatives of bride and groom attending.

The couple is now en route to Madison, Wis., where both will attend the national convention of the Grand Army of the Republic in official capacities.

The former Mrs. Hewitt is national special aide to the Daughters of Union Veterans, a past president of the local D. U. V. department patriotic instructor to the California Auxiliary of the Sons of Union Veterans, and for this past year has been commander of the Los Angeles Auxiliary to the Sons of Union Veterans, working side by side with Dr. Barrett, who is commander of the post. Mrs. Barrett is also a prominent member of Hermosa chapter, Order of Eastern Star.

Dr. and Mrs. Barrett will make their home in Huntington Park, although the latter will retain her extensive property interests in Santa Ana and Orange county.

New Sugar Tax Effective Today

WASHINGTON. (AP)—A $60,000,000 sugar tax—the first proceeding levy on a farm product since the supreme court nullified the AAA taxes—became effective today as part of the new sugar-quota legislation.

President Roosevelt signed the much-debated sugar bill last night at Hyde Park and at the same time sharply assailed some of its provisions.

He said it legalized a "virtual monopoly" by a small group of seaboard refiners and that he had signed it only on assurance from congressional leaders that beet and cane growers were ending their "unholy alliance" with the seaboard refiners.

Striker Shot In MWD Flareup

SAN BERNARDINO. (AP)—Shot through both legs, a striking tunnel worker, Chaplin Spurlock, was confined today to a hospital while the sheriff's office investigated the latest flareup of violence in connection with the Colorado river aqueduct.

CIO union spokesmen asserted Spurlock was shot by a truck driver hauling cement to the San Jacinto tunnel of the aqueduct. Sheriff's deputies said two trucks had been stoned earlier yesterday.

INTRUDER IS CAPTURED 'RED-HANDED'

Arrest May Solve 100
Southland Thefts

In the dim light of early morning, Watchman Roy A. Wagner wheeled sharply at the sound of breaking glass. Drawing his gun, he sped down Fourth street from Broadway, toward Asher's jewelry store, at 212 West Fourth street.

Ahead of him he saw a man, with his arm reaching into the window, obviously sweeping up a rich "haul" in jewelry. The man turned as he saw Wagner approach, and tried to escape. The watchman pounced on him before he could get away.

SOLVES MYSTERY

Today a report at the police station told of the arrest of a man caught "red handed" while ransacking the Asher store window. Officers said Wagner's capture of Larie E. Stewart, 34, of Los Angeles, probably has solved a hundred mysterious jewelry store burglaries running into thousands of dollars, all the way from San Diego to Sacramento.

Wagner is an employee of the Merchants Police and Protective association. His report showed that the jewelry store had been broken into last night, brought some of the loot to the police station, and a beer-can opener that he believed was used to cut the glass before it was neatly broken to provide access to the entire show window.

FDR APPROVES HOUSING BILL

HYDE PARK, N. Y. (AP)—President Roosevelt announced today the approval of the Wagner-Stegall bill launching a $26,000,000 experiment in federal-local slum clearance and low-rent housing construction.

He also signed the senate bill authorizing a government monopoly in the production of helium and changing export rules to permit its sale to foreign countries in restricted quantities for commercial or medical purposes.

Agitation for loosening existing restrictions on export of this non-inflammable gas began soon after the German dirigible Hindenburg crashed in flames after an explosion at Lakehurst, N. J.

'Santa Claus' Death at Delhi Saddens Mexican Children

A cloud of gloom settled over the children of Delhi today.

When they awoke they were met with the news that Santa Claus had died while they slept.

When Christmas comes there will be no Santa Claus to bring into their homes the annual package bursting with candy. No more will the happy children trail Saint Nick through the streets as he goes on his annual rounds.

Air Attack on Kagoshima Follows Bitter Shanghai Bombardment; Defenders Hold Lines

SHANGHAI (Friday). (AP)—An unconfirmed report early today said Chinese military planes had flown to Japan and bombed Kagoshima, southernmost port of importance in Japan proper.

Kagoshima is in the south of Kyushu island, on the west coast, about 66 miles from Nanking, the Chinese capital. It has about 137,000 population.

While the report went unconfirmed for the time being, the Chinese have threatened repeatedly to fly across the Yellow sea and carry the war into Japan proper.

BOMB, CANNON ATTACK WREAKS HAVOC

The report came a few hours after Japanese air squadrons, in Shanghai, had dumped bombs on the northern borders of the international settlement at Thursday sunset, just missing the sand-bagged sectors defended by American marines.

The bombs played havoc with life and property but, apparently, achieved no military objective.

Shrapnel fell about United States marine posts. The American lines were directly in the range of fire. The steel-helmeted marines were in imminent danger of serious casualties in case Japanese air bombers or naval gunners overshot their marks, the Chinese government mint and other administrative buildings.

JAPANESE CLAIM BIG VICTORY

A dozen miles to the north the major fighting surged on, with Japanese asserting their troops were approaching the walls of Paoshan and Chinese declaring their lines were holding firm. The Japanese admitted their earlier claim to the capture of Paoshan was a mistake.

Liuhio, in this area, was pounded fiercely by great Japanese naval shells and air bombs, but the Chinese troops

DEATH TAKES MISS MARTHA RITCHIE

The sudden death of Miss Martha Ritchie, who passed away in her sleep last night, brought sorrow to hundreds of friends of the prominent descendant of a pioneer family, who had lived here all her life.

"Miss Mattie," as she was known to the younger people of the county, was 49 years of age, and apparently in her customary good health. For many years she had given devoted care to her mother, Mrs. Martha E. Ritchie, with whom she made her home on the Ritchie ranch on East McFadden street. She managed the extensive ranch property for many years.

Miss Ritchie was very active in the Eboli club, and was noted for her gracious hospitality and interest in literary fields. She taught Spanish, Latin and drama in Huntington Beach about 20 years ago, and previous to that was graduated from Santa Ana High school and the University of California at Berkeley.

Sycamore Rebekahs will conduct graveside rites at interment services in Fairhaven cemetery. Dr. George A. Warner, formerly pastor of the local First Methodist Episcopal church, of which Miss Ritchie was a member, will officiate at funeral services to be held at 2 p. m. Saturday from Smith and Tuthill funeral chapel. Besides her mother, she is survived by one sister, Mrs. E. A. Reid of Orange.

MANN ACT CHARGE

SAN FRANCISCO. (AP)—Peggy Ashby, alias Cornell, was arrested here today and held on a Los Angeles charge of transporting a young girl to Honolulu in violation of the Mann act.

I'll Tell You By BOB BURNS

Science is gradually pushing old-fashioned methods further back into the discard. Even back home, the people are leaning more and more on science and modern methods. Ever since I can remember Grandma Norbeck has been treating us for almost every ailment with her old-fashioned remedies.

Somehow or other, they always seemed to work, but not long ago, they got one of those city doctors down there and he started in preachin' against those old-fashioned remedies. Grandma Norbeck was the last one to give in, but finally they converted her and she promised that the next time anyone of us got sick, she'd let us send for a doctor.

Not long after that, my Cousin Wafford got sick and she put him to bed and she called a doctor. Grandma Norbeck met him at the door and the doctor says, "Well, have you done anything for the boy?" Grandma says, "No I didn't." She said, "I did soak his feet in hot mustard water. I gave him a dose of quinine and some mullein tea. I put a poultice on his back and one on his chest. I rubbed him with alcohol and put an ice bag back of his neck and then I gave him some herbs that I had mixed up, but figured I'd better not do anything until you come out and told us what's lin' him."

GIRL ADMITS WEHN DID NOT ATTACK HER

Jury to Receive Case Here Late Today

The fate of Elmer Wehn, 28-year-old La Habra WPA crossing guard charged with a sex crime against an 11-year-old schoolgirl, was to be in the hands of a superior court late this afternoon.

The girl, nervous and weeping, told her story to the jury yesterday afternoon. She admitted under cross-examination, however, that Wehn had not attempted to attack her after rubbing liniment on her skinned knee in the basement of the La Habra school last month.

Defense Attorney Charles Swanner also attempted in his argument to the jury today to impeach testimony of another minor girl to the effect that Wehn had attempted to attack her last year. This girl was a principal witness last year in a trial which caused D. C. Shirley of Santa Ana to be sentenced to San Quentin on sex crime charges.

A long string of character witnesses filed to the stand yesterday afternoon and testified to Wehn's good reputation in the community. These included Wehn's wife and his father, Edgar T. Wehn, President A. I. Mellenthin of the Santa Ana First National bank, the Rev. Roy A. Anderson and the Rev. S. T. Borg.

Deputy District Attorney Harold McCabe presented his argument to the jury this morning, and Swanner began his argument before noon. Former Municipal Judge Guy Bush of Los Angeles, associated with Swanner in the defense, was not expected to argue.

Mrs. Kunkel Dies At Garden Grove

Mrs. August Kunkel, 56, a resident of Orange county for more than 50 years, died at her home in Garden Grove this morning after an illness of about a year.

She was a member of the Garden Grove Four Square church, and funeral services will be conducted by the Rev. Raymond Coakes, pastor of the church, in the Brown and Wagner funeral home at 2 p. m. Saturday.

Survivors are her husband, Ludwig Kunkel; three children, Elmer, Earl and Alice Kunkel all of Garden Grove; one brother, John Klemm of Stanton; three grandchildren, Joyce, Richard and David Kunkel, all of Garden Grove.

SEEK WITNESS IN DYER CASE

LOS ANGELES. (AP)—Sheriff's officers were searching today for Mike Huerta, 14-year-old Mexican youth who was instrumental in the arrest of Albert Dyer for the slaying of three little Inglewood girls.

Parents of the boy reported he had been missing from his home since last Friday. They expressed fear he had met with foul play, as he never before had left home without appraising them of his intended whereabouts.

F. H. Schneider of Anaheim Dies

Frederick Henry Schneider, a resident of Anaheim for 42 or 53 years, died at his home on Placentia avenue, Anaheim, last evening after a brief illness.

Mr. Schneider was a native of Kansas, but moved to California with his parents as a boy. He was proprietor of a meat market on East Center street, Anaheim, for many years. He was also a member of the I. O. O. F. of Anaheim and of the Elks lodge, No. 1345, B. P. O. E.

The second one did not. So, what have we? Then from another direction came a car whose driver was perturbed over the intersection delay and registered an emphatic objection by indentation on the side of the car which had suddenly stopped. Two motorcycle patrolmen made a number of notations, and when I arrived most of the conversation was over, but three cars were involved, two motorcycle men and an unnumbered number of spectators. However, the participants could not have selected a more appropriate place for the controversy. A new car dealer is on one corner, garage on another, tire and service dealer on another, and a used car lot on the other. Service? plenty.

through Hongkong today after a 125-mile-an-hour wind had taken hundreds of lives ashore and at sea.

The death toll, steadily rising, was believed to have passed 500. Officials expressed fear it would mount into thousands.

A wide area of this British crown colony was devastated and waist-deep in water.

Large and small ships were piled up on the sea wall and strewn in the submerged waterfront streets. Distress calls from foundering ships poured in from all sides.

Shipping suffered particularly heavily in the gale, one of the worst in Hongkong's history, because the harbor is thronged with refugee-laden ships from the Shanghai war zone and steamers that have taken haven from the Japanese coastal blockade.

CHINESE GET 72 SOVIET AIRPLANES

TIENSIN. (AP)—The Japanese consulate general reported today a fleet of 72 Russian airplanes had arrived at the North Central China province of Shensi, 500 air miles from Tiensin.

Seventy additional Russian planes were flying to China, Japanese said, adding they did not know whether the planes were purchased from Russia or were "a Soviet contribution to a Chinese-Soviet anti-Japanese front."

The planes may have come from Russian Turkistan in Central Asia or from Soviet-controlled outer Mongolia, the consulate stated.

HIRAM JOHNSON HAS BIRTHDAY

SAN FRANCISCO. (AP)—Hiram W. Johnson, California's senior United States senator, observed his seventy-first birthday today, surrounded by well-wishing friends and by his family, which includes Mrs. Johnson, their son, Hiram W. Johnson, jr., and their grandson, Hiram W. Johnson, III.

He arrived home yesterday after a two-year absence during part of which time he was seriously ill. The senator said he felt fine. The Johnsons took up their residence at the Nob Hill hotel where they lived formerly.

Report Theft of Two Bicycles

Await Ordinance On Pay Boost

County employees' salaries, nicely classified yesterday afternoon as their bosses were called on the supervisory carpet, will be definitely adjusted Friday—if the district attorney's office finishes compiling a voluminous ordinance. Department heads, called before the supervisors, listed their employees in A, B, and C classes, which will receive varying salaries depending on their experience and jobs.

The ordinance, now being prepared by Dist. Atty. W. F. Menton, must list each office and job separately. Supervisors want it completed by 1 p. m. Friday, which may or may not be possible.

DEATH FAILS TO HALT SHOW

The show must go on! True to the tradition of trouper, a tragedy in the life of William G. Stewart, stage manager for the federal music project production, "The Geisha Girl," will not halt presentation of the play tonight.

James Stewart, son of William Stewart, died last night at 7 o'clock in Los Angeles. The sad news was withheld from the father until after the performance at Fullerton last night, when it was broken to him by Sidney Wilde, agent-cashier of the local project. True to the "on with the show" tradition, the stage manager will function at tonight's performance at the Santa Ana High school, despite the tragedy in his own life. Stewart was stage manager for the original production of "The Geisha Girl," when it ran in New York.

HOLT FIGHTS THIRD TERM

WASHINGTON. (AP)—Senator Holt (D., W. Va.) said today he will seek to record the senate against a third term for President Roosevelt.

A frequent administration critic, Holt said he would offer the same resolution opposing a third term which the senate approved in 1928 and the house adopted in 1925. He noted that nearly a score of Democrats now in the senate voted nine years ago, when Calvin Coolidge was President, that a third term would be "unwise, unpatriotic and fraught with peril to our free institutions."

and 10:30 p. m. One belonging to Harold Nels Holmberg, Garden Grove, was reported stolen from Fourth and Birch streets between 2 and 5 p. m. yesterday.

STORE LOOTING IS BLOCKED

Police connected this morning's attempted theft with two jewelry store-window burglaries committed earlier in the year. Windows in each case had been marked and broken in the same manner as that used on Asher's store, and a car described as similar to that registered to Stewart had been reported in connection with a burglary at the H. B. Trott jewelry store, Fifth and Sycamore streets, on June 27.

The Trott burglary netted $611.75, while one committed at C. M. Marks' store, 120 East Fourth street, on March 27, netted $146.15. Numerous unsolved jewelry burglaries where the same "modus operandi" was used have been reported in Long Beach, Anaheim, San Bernardino, Stockton, Bakersfield, Sacramento, San Diego, Fresno, San Jose and Los Angeles.

"This is the biggest jewelry-store burglary cleanup that's been made in a long time," Police Chief Floyd W. Howard remarked. "It's not often that a burglary suspect is caught red-handed."

Stewart was wearing gloves when apprehended, police said, and another pair of gloves was found in his car. No fingerprints were discovered in connection with any of the three Santa Ana burglaries. Captain R. S. Elliott and Detective Lieutenant C. W. Wolford conducted the investigation for the police, aided by Wagner of the merchant police.

Fields Loses Suit Appeal

RIVERSIDE. (AP)—W. C. Fields, film comic, has lost his plea for a new trial of the civil suit in which Dr. Jesse Citron of Hemet, was awarded $12,500 for medical services rendered.

Judge O. K. Morton denied Fields' petition yesterday but the comedians' attorneys indicated they would carry the case to the state supreme court.

Pair Die as L. A. Airplane Falls

LOS ANGELES. (AP)—Federal Bureau of Air Navigation officials began today an investigation of an airplane crash in the Vernon industrial district which took the lives of Harry J. La Halchot of Maywood and Frank Brown, 28-year-old transport pilot and flying instructor.

The plane, witnesses said, made two complete loops before going into a dive from a height of about 300 feet late yesterday. It crashed within 20 feet of the heavy stream of traffic on Atlantic boulevard.

TAX RATE FOR L. A. IS SET

LOS ANGELES. (AP)—The county tax rate today stood at $141 per $100 of assessed valuation, 14 cents higher than last year.

The levy was fixed yesterday afternoon by the board of supervisors, which reduced the county flood control district levy from 20 cents to 19 cents.

The levy anticipates a budget of $57,715,325, an increase of $10,650 over last year, due largely to laws of the recent legislature liberalizing old age pensions and other forms of aid.

A road tax of 7 cents, the first since 1934, for unincorporated territory, was levied.

The rate for Los Angeles schools was fixed at $1.70, or 33 cents higher than last year.

A Safety Tip FOR YOUR Labor Day Trip

Here's Why FIRESTONE STANDARD TIRES GIVE YOU MORE FOR YOUR MONEY

DON'T take chances on your Labor Day trip. Protect yourself and family by equipping your car with a set of new first-quality Firestone Standard Tires. Firestone builds extra quality and extra safety into these tires and sells them at lower prices because Firestone controls rubber and cotton supplies at their sources, manufactures with greater efficiency and distributes at lower cost.

YOU GET EXTRA PROTECTION AGAINST BLOWOUTS—eight extra pounds of rubber are added to every 100 pounds of cord because every fiber of every cord in every ply is saturated with liquid rubber by the Firestone patented Gum-Dipping Process. This counteracts the internal friction and heat that ordinarily cause blowouts.

YOU GET EXTRA PROTECTION AGAINST PUNCTURES—because there are two extra layers of Gum-Dipped cords under the tread.

YOU GET EXTRA PROTECTION AGAINST SKIDDING—because the tread is scientifically designed.

YOU GET LONGER NON-SKID MILEAGE—because of the extra-tough, long-wearing tread.

YOU need all of these features to make your car tire-safe on your Labor Day trip. Firestone gives them to you at lower cost. Join the Firestone SAVE A LIFE Campaign today by equipping your car with a set of new Firestone Standard Tires—today's top tire value.

DON'T RISK YOUR LIFE ON SMOOTH WORN TIRES!

DO YOU KNOW THAT last year highway accidents cost the lives of more than 38,000 men, women and children? THAT a million more were injured? THAT more than 40,000 of these deaths and injuries were caused directly by punctures, blowouts and skidding due to smooth, worn, unsafe tires?

At right is section cut from a new Firestone tire. Note the thick, non-skid protection against skidding, blowouts and punctures. Come in and see by actual demonstration.

At left is a section cut from a smooth, worn tire, with non-skid protection worn off. Tires in this condition are liable to punctures, blowouts and skidding.

CHAMBER'S PHOTO PRIZES ARE AWARDED

Three Given Cash for Local Photographs

Picture-snappers were rewarded with solid cash today for their efforts to capture the beauty of Orange county on photographic prints.
 The Santa Ana Chamber of Commerce, through Secretary Howard I. Wood, today announced winners in the first annual photographic contest for amateurs, following submission of a large number of attractive pictures in the contest.
 First prize went to Marlon Brando, 1202 South Van Ness street; second to Mina Shafer, 421 North Sycamore street, Santa Ana, and third to Edith M. Cutter, Route 1, Box 446, Orange.
 Awards were made by a special contest judging committee comprised of Oliver Lindemeyer, chairman, Mrs. Erma B. McClelland and Ivie Stein.
 First prize won a cash award of $25, second $10 and third $5.
 The first prize winner was a picture of the corridor of a room at the San Juan Capistrano mission. Second prize-winning photo showed a row of palm trees along a dirt road near La Habra. The third prize-winner was a picture of a farmer pausing from his work with his reaper.

SUCCESS STORY TOLD HERE

Local boy makes good.
 That could well be the true title to the story of Virgil Reed, 28, who started working for the Santa Ana Book store 11 years ago and who now has landed a fine position with a nationally known concern.
 Reed got a job with the book store 11 years ago, sweeping floors. Later he was advanced to a position as clerk in the store by Robert L. Brown, owner. Fortune smiled upon him about a year and a half ago, when Frank D. Waterman, pioneer manufacturer of fountain pens, came into the store and talked to Reed.
 Waterman took a liking to the young clerk, and Sunday he sent a telegram to Reed offering him a job representing the Waterman company in Southern California. Reed accepted the job and on Monday will start covering all the territory from the Mexican border to Bakersfield and Fresno, and besides is representative for Arizona and New Mexico.
 Reed's place at the store will be taken by Matt Brown, son of the proprietor, Robert Brown. Young Brown will be in charge of the window display work, and also will sell on the floor.
 Reed will continue to reside in Santa Ana.

Streetcar System Is Modernized

INDIANAPOLIS (AP)—Bankrupt seven years ago, the Indianapolis street car system today is a thriving concern—thanks to an $8,000,000 modernization program begun in 1932 at the depth of the depression.
 The system now operates 325 new street cars, trackless trolleys and motor coaches. The 152 trackless trolleys constitute the largest fleet of this kind in the country. Thirty miles of new track have been laid, the entire system unified and schedules improved.
 The public has responded. Daily passengers have increased from 166,000 in 1932 to 212,500.

Love May Save Girl from Jail

SALINAS (AP)—Romance may aid in saving Miss Audrey Smith, 18-year-old dancer, charged with auto theft, from a jail term.
 Superior Judge H. G. Jorgensen received a letter today ostensibly from "Tex" Johnson, Ocean Park clothes cleaner, offering to marry the girl if she is granted probation.
 Miss Smithers was arrested recently with Guy Thomas at Los Angeles and was returned here on auto theft charges. Thomas later was sentenced to Folsom prison.
 Judge Jorgensen ordered Probation Officer Ney Otis to investigate Johnson and report.

funeral services will be held Sunday afternoon. Interment in Glendale, Neb. cemetery.
 SCHNEIDER—Frederick Henry Schneider, 53, died at his home on Placentia avenue, Anaheim Sept. 1. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Martha K. Schneider; his father, Justus Schneider of Anaheim; four sisters, Mrs. Fred Hochuli of Terrabella, Calif.; Mrs. Walter Clark of Garden Grove; Mrs. Carlton Stevens of Huntington Beach; and Mrs. Rollo Lühring of Santa Ana; four brothers, Henry and Ed W. Schneider of Anaheim, Oscar P. Schneider of Fullerton, and Walter G. Schneider of Pico. Funeral services will be held at 10:30 a. m. Sunday from the Salem Evangelical church, Anaheim, with the Rev. U. S. Schauer, officiating. Elks services at interment in Melrose Abbey mausoleum.

Funeral Notice

CAMP—Funeral services for Lellah Maude Camp, who died in Santa Ana Aug. 30, will be held at 10 a. m. Friday from the Brown and Wagner funeral home, with the Rev. W. J. Hatter officiating. Interment in Odd Fellows cemetery at Fallbrook, Calif.

Fair Farmerettes Vie For Crown at County Fair

Miss Angie Ficker, last year's queen of agriculture, is shown looking over the crops of candidates for the 1937 honor as they line up in a characteristic farm setting. The queen who will rule over the big agricultural exposition in Pomona Sept. 17 to Oct. 3 will have a court of honor composed of girls representing the major southland crops. Left to right the girls are Evelyn Bunton, Janice Zeigler, Ethlyn Bunton, Marilyn Hubber, Betty Zeigler, Nancy Gillin, Raylene Smith, Shirley Smith, Dormel Lindersmith, Allone Leslie and Emma Cespedes.

Tea's For Two, But Not Orders

WASHINGTON (AP)—Postmaster General Farley is overlooking no bets when it comes to pinching pennies from postoffice department customers.
 He's just clamped down on the practice of sending money to two persons with one money order.
 "Two persons, two money orders," says Farley's department in its orders to postmasters.

FDR Approves Wild Life Bill

HYDE PARK, N. Y. (AP)—President Roosevelt today signed the bill authorizing federal aid to states for wild life restoration projects.
 The act provides for a special wild life fund equivalent to taxes collected on firearms and ammunition.

HAWAII URGED PROTECTION OF

NEW YORK (AP)—Maj. Gen. Hugh A. Drum, retiring commander of the army in Hawaii, said today the best way to defend the United States from "invasion from the west" was to make Hawaii impregnable.

"The Hawaiian Islands constitute our first line of defense on the Pacific," said the general. "They must be our first line. If any foreign power tries to attack our west coast, its navy must go through or past Hawaii. Our problem is to hold Hawaii."
 General Drum returned on the army transport U. S. Grant from a two and one-half year tour of duty as commander of the Hawaii department.

Movie Exhibit Plan Pushed

CULVER CITY (AP)—Civic leaders and movie executives of Culver City have organized to establish a giant international exposition of motion picture arts and sciences, a project that would cost $2,000,000, be housed on a 30-acre site, and receive assistance from city, county and state.
 Blaine Walker, chamber of commerce official, said the primary object was to create a museum in which would be depicted the 30 years growth of the nation's fourth largest industry.

Renew Coast Union Contracts

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Contracts between all Pacific coast sea-going unions and deep-sea operators were renewed automatically today for one year beginning Oct. 1.
 The contracts were entered into following last winter's costly 98-day tieup of shipping. Last midnight was the deadline for notification to the Pacific American Shipowners' association that amendments of contracts was desired. No such notice was received.

Halt Gift of Rich Property

LOS ANGELES (AP)—An injunction against Mrs. Inez L. Goodman, 78, was asked today because she assertedly announced she was "going to give away all my property and go on relief."
 The woman's niece, Mrs. Uda Holley, requested she be restrained from signing over a bungalow court to one of its tenants.
 "Mrs. Goodman has managed to lose or give away approximately $90,000 since her husband died," Mrs. Holley asserted.

URGES SINGLE R. R. OWNERSHIP

SALT LAKE CITY (AP)—A one-unit railroad system in the United States, as a "logical solution of railroads' difficulties," was proposed here today by interstate commerce commission chairman Carroll Miller of Washington.
 Addressing the opening session of the 49th annual convention of the National Association of Railroad and Utilities Commissioners, Miller said his views were his own—not those of the ICC.
 "Such a national system would result in a simple rate structure, no differently rated territories, uniform tariff classifications, reduction of transportation waste to a minimum and many other manifest benefits," he told the 300 delegates.

Landlords Resent Chinatown's 'Podii'

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—American owners of a building in Chinatown charge that the local Chinese custom of "podii" has caused two long-standing store vacancies.
 Asking a $5000 cut in tax valuation because of this situation, Robert Troy, building manager, described podii as "a pernicious form of blackmail used by the Chinese in San Francisco and nowhere else in the world."
 Troy calls it a boycott on property. When a building tenant has failed in business, his creditors sometimes attach his debts to the property instead of the individual, he explained. Written notices are posted and other Chinese business men will not occupy the place for fear of reprisals.
 "The landlord is sooner or later approached with the suggestion he make a 'settlement' and his property will be immediately rented again," Troy said.

Wodehouse Wins Mark Twain Medal

BEVERLY HILLS (AP)—P. G. Wodehouse, noted English novelist, dramatist and humorist, had been awarded the International Mark Twain Society gold medal.
 The presentation was made yesterday by the society's vice-president, Edward Carroll Sibley, who praised Wodehouse as the "modern prince of humorists."

Among other recipients of the Mark Twain medal are Mussolini, Marconi, General Pershing, Justice Hughes, Kipling, Oliver Wendell Holmes and President Roosevelt.

Noted Song Writer Dies

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Last rites for Harry McCoy, 43, composer of the "Pagan Love Song" who died yesterday of heart disease, will be held tomorrow.
 McCoy also was a Keystone comedy "cop" in the early days of the motion picture as well as one of the "hallroom boys." When Eva Tanguay was a vaudeville headliner, he wrote songs for her.

Drop 100 Aliens From WPA Rolls

Nearly a hundred aliens have been separated from the Works Progress Administration rolls in Orange county since orders came through barring aliens from government work relief projects, it was learned today from Mrs. Josephine Hearle, head of the intake and social service department of the county WPA.
 So far a total of 97 aliens have been dropped from the local WPA rolls, Mrs. Hearle said. Of the total, all but 10 are Mexicans. The balance of the aliens is divided among various nationalities.

3 TO HANDLE MELLON ESTATE

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Three men were given discretionary powers to dispose of the vast charitable trust created by Andrew W. Mellon for the promotion of mankind's "well doing or well being."

The deed of trust, filed in the Allegheny county recorder of deeds office, named as trustees the financier's only son, Paul; his son-in-law, David K. E. Bruce, and Donald D. Shepard, Mellon's attorney.

Bequest of the bulk of Mr. Mellon's personal fortune to the A. W. Mellon educational and charitable trust was disclosed by Shepard shortly after its donor's body was placed in a vault last Saturday beside that of his beloved brother, Richard B. Mellon.

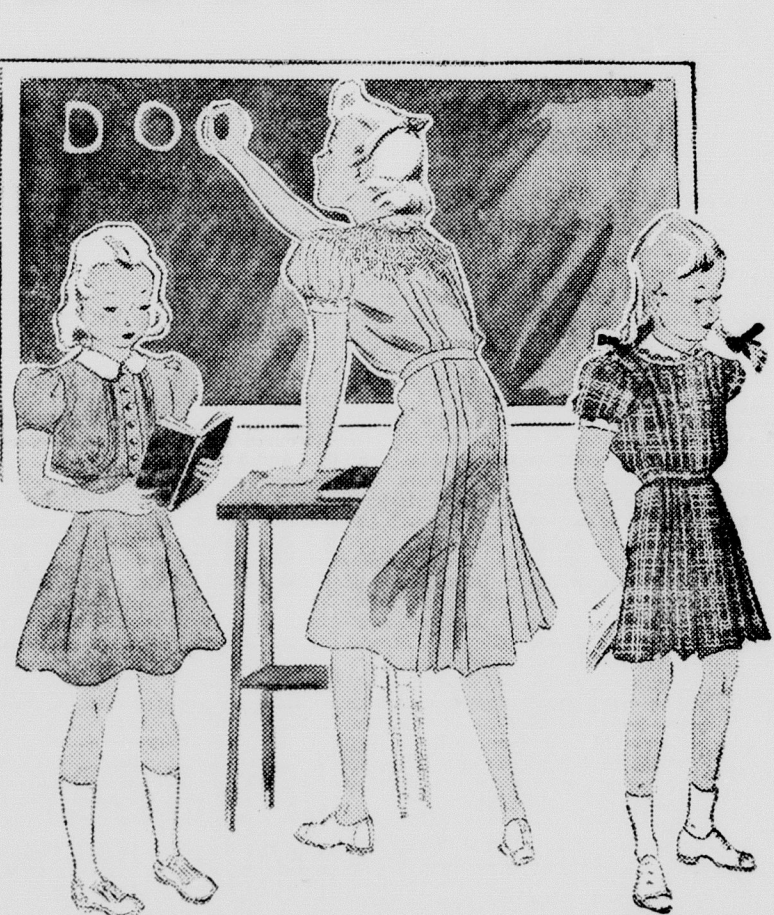

By a majority agreement the trustees may distribute the entire trust fund immediately or direct its use over an indefinite period.

Shepard said that with the exception of $180,000 to personal employees, Mellon's will directed that the remainder of his estate was bequeathed to the trust.

URGES EARLY HARVEST OF WALNUTS

Early and rapid harvesting of walnuts is essential to attaining the best quality that the tree can deliver during the season, according to statement made by Harold E. Wahlberg, farm advisor, today, who said quick harvesting methods have been stressed for many seasons, yet he finds many growers who still employ ancient methods of gathering their crop.

Inability to remove the hull has prevented growers from picking until 90 percent of the hulls loosened naturally. While waiting for this condition, quality decline frequently takes place, resulting in loss of value to the producer, Wahlberg explained. Recent research has developed a method of removing hulls from mature walnuts by gassing, thus permitting harvest as soon as the kernel is mature.

Head of Medical Group Succumbs

CHICAGO, (P)—Dr. George H. Simmons, 85, editor and general manager emeritus of the Journal of the American Medical Association, died in St. Luke's hospital today.

He failed to rally from an abdominal operation performed last Wednesday.

As general secretary of the American Medical Association from 1899 to 1911, and as editor of the association's journal from 1899 to 1924, Dr. Simmons was regarded as an outstanding figure in the medical profession.

H. Gordon Selfridge, British department store owner, is a native of Ripon, Wis.

'War' in Little Tokyo Is Result of Japanese War

LOS ANGELES, (P)—It's the Nisei against the Issei in the internal conflict now developing in Los Angeles' Little Tokyo, largest Japanese community in the United States, as an outgrowth of the Sino-Japanese hostilities.

The Nisei, or American-born Japanese, are for remaining out of the Far Eastern picture completely. The Issei, those born in Japan, are for giving every possible aid to the Japanese army and government.

Regardless of this difference between the two generations, Little Tokyo, after a 10-day campaign, has raised $25,000 and outfitted 18,000 Imon Bukuruts, or gift bags, containing cigarettes and candy for the emperor's legions.

The three Shinto temples, in which ancestral worship is practiced, have started a seven-day ceremony in memory of the soldiers of Japan. There is no mourning, for a Japanese soldier, when he starts to battle, is seldom expected to return. There is no higher honor in Japan than to die for country.

Thus far, only one Los Angeles Japanese resident has returned to the old country to fight. He left yesterday amid cheering of hundreds of his countrymen and banners announcing, "another hero for the imperial army." He was Sumizo Hirata, a janitor who wrote poetry as a sideline.

GENEROUS

"When I was photographing up in Canada last month I spent 10 days on the trail of a buck. 'H-m-m, Why didn't you wire me? I'd have been glad to send you a couple of bucks!'"

NOW THAT VACATION'S OVER

WE BEGIN to take notice of this house of ours. Even to grow irritated, alas! at those streaks in the wall paper, at the slight shoddiness of the outside paint. . . . A house needs a new dress once in a while, the same as we do—to bolster its morale. . . . Perhaps there's a room that we're just plain sick of. . . . It's amazing what a revolution a change of color will achieve. . . . The new Wall-hide paint for interiors literally works wonders. . . . Drop in at the PITTSBURGH PAINT STORE, 401 W. Fourth, and choose your tint from the wide range of misty pastels. PITTSBURGH is glad to give advice and service.

NEW DINNER CLOTHS

THAT schoolboy appetite. . . . Remember when you used to come rushing home with an armful of books, in ravenous anticipation of a hot and beautiful dinner? It looked better and smelled better on a big white tablecloth. . . . Somehow, there's nothing that quite takes the place of snowy linens. . . . And I just saw some lovely ones at SAYER'S LINEN STORE, 210 W. Fourth. . . . A new shipment of Belgian and Czechoslovakian dinner cloths, 70, 80, 90 and 108 inches in length. . . . From $2.95, including napkins. . . . A wide selection of new and traditional patterns. . . . Both cloth and napkins hemstitched. . . . And while you're

LABOR DAY DINNER

OF ALL the misnomers in the English language, it seems to me that "Labor Day" is tops. . . . If there is one day in the year that nobody wants to labor—this last twenty-four hour fling at summer must be it! And that "nobody" includes wives and mothers. . . .

So it's out to dinner—a special Labor Day feast. . . . To fortify us against the long, hard winter! And where else but the GREEN CAT, where festivities are a specialty? Whether it's just a supper tete-a-tete for two, or a real "spread" for the whole family—Mr. Hinegardner, GREEN CAT's jovial host, will send you forth satisfied with your palate and with the world at large. . . . There'll be roast duck and sizzling steak. . . . pastries and hunger-whetting appetizers. . . . 415 N. Main, Santa Ana, and 1406 W. Whittier Blvd., at Hadley.

NEW KNITS

INTRODUCING—the Polar Yarns. . . . And a beautiful line of French, Scotch and domestic materials. . . . New yarns for rugs, too, and tomorrow's rug patterns. . . . Novelty buttons for your 1937 knits, as shown in "Vogue" by Marshall Field. . . . Knit blouses and dresses greatly reduced. . . . Condie Ward's KNIT SHOP, Arcade Bldg.

there, ask to see their magnificent Irish linens—reasons why a bachelor girl sometimes wonders. . . .

FALL FOOTWEAR

THE rage for Early American interiors which has swept the decorating world has had far-reaching effect. . . . It has become the sounding note of an awakening to American style tradition.

Copyright, 1937 by Fairchild

Designers in all walks of creative effort have definitely "gone American". . . .

Reflecting the trend—the new shoes by Carlisle. . . . Drawing his inspiration from the patchwork of American Colonial days, the famous designer has created the Multipatch Shoe—a complete family, including the Continental-heeled pump, for dress occasions, the in-between Chinese heel, and the low-heeled casual. . . . A patchwork of subtle Autumn colors, Carlisle's Multipatch is a completely new departure in Midway's fine footwear. . . . You admired them in Vogue, now come in and see them at PETERSON'S.

OUTDOOR GIRL POWDER

WE'VE been hearing of lots of people making special trips out of town for their Outdoor Girl face powder. . . . The lost is found, the bacon is brought home—you'll find your favorite shade light-sun Outdoor Girl, small size, at WELSH'S NOVELTY STORE, on Sycamore next to the Grand Central Market.

LINGERIE FOR SCHOOL

PAJAMAS. . . . For luxuriously lounging and soundly sleeping. . . . Paisleys, dots, plain colors, to smite envy into the hearts of classmates. . . . An endless array of the "unmentionables"—tailored or lacy. . . . But wait: for that different touch that "makes" a campus reputation—peasant style, flower splashed organdy aprons! For those little teas in your room. . . . CHIC LINGERIE, 219 N. Broadway.

PERSONALITY IN BUSINESS

THE importance of personality to business, as well as social, success is underestimated by most of us. . . . If it were not, more people would be doing more about it. . . . I've always remembered a bit of advice given to me by the then editor of the Baltimore Sun. . . . He said, "Develop your personality and the rest will take care of itself." The significance of those words was illustrated by an employer's remark recently overheard: "He's so well liked throughout the personnel we can't afford to drop him!" And the man kept his job! It is this development of personality for success that the chief concern of the ORANGE COUNTY BUSINESS SCHOOL, opening on Tuesday, Sept. 7. . . . Special personality study is given outside the school. Discuss your problems with Dr. Smith.

IF YOU LOVE FINE FURNITURE—

GET INTO the habit of dropping in at the FAIRMAC STUDIO, 116 S. Sycamore. . . . They're antique uncoverers of the old school—haunting the homes and out-of-the-way spots that have amateur antique hounds could never penetrate. . . . You may even have some valuable old pieces to exchange. . . . At the present time, there is a magnificent late Victorian bedroom set consisting of dresser, commode and bedstead—beautifully veneered rich wood. . . . A leather upholstered Georgian chair, and a hand-carved, Victorian book-case.

THE NEW CANDYLAND

SMELT it yet? What aromas! They come right out on the side-walk and pull you in. . . . Then convince you life's been spent in the trees of slow starvation! In short, the new Candyland is even more delish than the old one. . . . Incidentally chocolate still at the Opening special of 50c a pound, 503 N. Main.

THE PARKING PROBLEM

WHERE to park? The nightmare of all shoppers. . . . We suggest Platt's Parking Service at Third and Spurgeon. It's clean and dry. . . . Washing, lubricating, polishing and tire service allow you to smite two birds with the proverbial one stone. It's the ANNEX SERVICE GARAGE—phone 2340.

GET A HEAD START—

THE NEW hats. . . . Positively, they've got much verve and wheel! They're going to go like the proverbial hotcakes. . . . Off-the-face bonnets for debs, with frolicking streamers. . . . Breezy Bretons for casual co-eds. . . . Sophisticated turbans and glorified pill-boxes for the fashionable matron. . . . There's a granddaughter of the Turkish fez in navy suede with a slim red quill. . . . Black felt with blue and green reflects the trend toward color with black. . . . We note the height and forward movement inspired by Paris' Directorate Ball. . . . AT LA GRACE SHOPPE, 413 N. Sycamore.

WILLIAMS' SCHOOL UNIFORMS

IT'S TIME to stock up on your Willard uniforms, before the sizes are broken by the pre-school opening rush. . . . The new stock has just been put out on RONSHOLDT'S—and each uniform's as fresh as starch. . . . All the prescribed shades navy, cadet blue, green, brown and yellow. . . . Guaranteed fast colors—in that ever-wearing Argentine cloth. . . . Sizes 10 to 14. . . . Other school clothes, too—sweaters with the new necklines and fitted waists. . . . Skirts in modified "sawing" and box-pleated styles—with the high waistline of course. . . . Grammar school fashions are, as usual, dominated by the Kate Greenaway frocks. RONSHOLDT'S, Santora building.

HOME CAFE

WHERE you can enjoy a home-cooked dinner that you didn't prepare. . . . Have your dinner and eat it too! . . . Been serving what Santa Ana likes for 15 years. 304 N. Broadway.

TIME FOR SCHOOL

MAN'S most valuable possession—time. . . . "Time will tell." Time will cure everything. . . . Endless pretexts witness the respect in which Time has been held for countless generations. . . . Yet how many of us waste it—and get into the habit of wasting it when we were school children. . . . If we had been brought up, from the first, to appreciate its value—with a fine timepiece of our own, of which we could be proud. . . . There's a greater opportunity for parents today to appeal to their children's pride of ownership than ever before. . . . The fine tradition of Hamilton, Elgin, Waltham—in an endless array of school wrist watches in a wide range of price. . . . New rectangular designs, masculine and sturdy. . . . The Waltham round model, daintily feminine yet durable. . . . H. R. TROTT, Fifth and Sycamore. Mr. Trott has the new Wahl Eversharp—one press of the top and out pops the lead. . . . And the famous Conklin fountain pen that winds like a watch.

COATS FOR CAMPUS

AND SMART sportswear in general. . . . The old classic card's hair gone glamorous! In black, with new stitched treatment of the sleeves and a dash of sophistication in the exaggerated lapels. . . . A brown fleece with new swaggy lines and high breast pockets, decidedly jaunty. . . . And a woolly gray swaggy with those same jaunty pockets. . . . SCOLLER'S, 312 N. Sycamore.

REVOLUTION IN RINGLETS

WHEN Mme. Chiang Kai Chek kisses the Mikado, you'll enjoy having a permanent. Or that's what you think—unless you know about the Zotos Machineless Wave. . . . Winner of the Paris Grand Prix in 1933 and of the Good Housekeeping stamp of approval. . . . If you're still agonizing through old-fashioned machine waves, climb out of your bustles and have a softer, more lustrous wave—in comfort! . . . Here's how it works: The hair, wound on a curler in the usual manner, is then wet with Zotos lotion, containing oil. Each curl is next wrapped in a Zotos Vapet, a soft pad containing non-injurious powder which, when wet, produces heat. . . . Temperature controlled. . . . Meanwhile you stay cool and comfortable! Magic! VIEIRA-WILSON BEAUTY SHOP, 413 N. Broadway.

SWEATERS AND SKIRTS

SWEATERS and skirts—first lesson in school apparel. . . . The one classic that follows through all the way from kindergarten to B. A. . . . It pays to learn the lesson thoroughly to make the grade of well-dressed schoolgirl. . . . Precursor Mattingly, at 220 W. Fourth, is an authority on the subject. . . . A little tutoring from him and you're assured of an "A." First comes the all-wool zephyr slip-on, in rust, royal, red or green—long sleeves and a new note in inserted V neckline and imitation breast pockets—only $1.95. . . . For our second lesson, the coat sweater—a new combination of corduroy and wool, borrowed from the masculine. . . . Further lessons to come.

THE NEW STROMBERG-CARLSONS

THERE'S no man alive who combines the tone quality of Nelson Eddy, the grace of line of the Discus Thrower and the rugged endurance of Tommy Farr. . . . Yet there is such a radio, and that radio is the Stromberg-Carlson. . . . The Eddy mellowness of tone is achieved by long, winding passageway of the famous "Acoustical Labyrinth," exclusive with Stromberg-Carlson. . . . Usefulness combines with beauty in the new creations of Stromberg designers. . . . A glass-topped coffee table, walnut finish, to add to the charm of your drawing room: The gracious hostess tunes in dinner music—on the quick In-dex type dial—while she serves demitasse to her guests. . . . An end table for your easy chair in the modern circular design. . . . FOSTER-BARKER, 309 North Broadway.

FASHION CHATTER

One of the major thrills of going to college is the heady sensation of starting a new life. . . . A life that calls for its particular tools and supplies, as well as its own costumes. . . . Last Thursday's Chatter lister what I consider the essentials of a college wardrobe. . . . I've labeled my second list Essentials Other Than Wardrobe:

First, because scarcely anyone ever thinks of it—a First Aid Kit. Just the basic supplies of gauze bandage, adhesive, mercurichrom and, yes! corn plasters. Campus coverage is hard on the feet in the early weeks. And cut fingers invariably come on the eve of an exam, when time is worth a page a minute. . . .

You can't get an "A" without a good fountain pen—or even a "gentleman's C," in comfort. In this day of lecture classes, everything depends on your notes, and on the speed with which you can take them. . . .

If you "hunt and peck" with even mediocre agility, a typewriter will save a heap of spending money at term paper time. I practically put a typist through college. . . .

Speaking of term papers, even Phi Betas occasionally get in a jam—and the old alarm clock leaps to an unwelcome, but indispensable, rescue. . . . Hand in hand with the alarm, that other sleep-dispenser—the coffee pot. The drip kind for convenience. . . .

Finally, a pair of book-ends for close-at-hand reference books. . . . A desk calendar to keep your extra-curricular activities from coinciding with an important "quiz." . . . Extra pillows for your room—you can't have too many. . . . And a generous supply of ash trays, regulations permitting. . . .

Next week: Hints to Parents and Uncles on going-away gifts for collegiennes. See you shopping!

THE NEW RADIOS

THE 1938 Packard-Bell Radios are in at the PLATT AUTO SERVICE, Third and Bush. . . . Auto radios with custom panel controls that match your car. . . . Automatic volume control. . . . And the 12-tube home radio that comes in walnut and ivory—for modern interiors. . . . Straight from the factory, they are less expensive.

THE NEW RATAN

BORNEO, SUMATRA! The far-off strangeness of the East Indies clings to the new Ratan furniture, that is, yet, as modern as Manhattan. . . . Materials from the ancient East streamlined for Western homes. . . .

There is vast superiority in the new Ratan over the old stick reed furniture, both in material and design. . . . There is the same difference between Borneo and Philippine cane as between African and Philippine mahogany—the difference in hardness and durability. . . . The pieces are fashioned on larger and stronger frames, smoothly and securely finished to prevent catching hose and clothing. . . . Ideal for den or sunporch of any town house. Ratan is being suggested by leading decorators for the entire furnishing of beach homes—to carry out the atmosphere of airiness and informality. . . . A clever nest of tables, semi-circular in shape, and a "modernistic" step lamp table stand out particularly among the pieces we have seen. . . . Mr. C. William Hip-pard, decorator for IRA CHANDLER & SON, is at present working on the design for the first Ratan dining-room—we can imagine no more appetizing setting for cool salads and informal suppers. . . . You may have your set custom made in your own design, if you wish.

Thinking of furniture, the question immediately arises: what sort of background to give it? Two new rugs have recently been introduced that are perfect companions to Ratan: One, of French Indo-China, and British East Indian goat-hair—in natural and tan tones, only, no dye being used. . . . You saw it in the living-room of the Chandler furnished model home on Lido Isle. . . . The other, a new heavy duty "grass" rug, woven all in one piece, of hard twisted fibre. . . . at CHANDLER'S, Third and Main.

SUNLIGHT AND SERENITY

BREAKFAST nooks are such delightful spots—or should be. Think what an effect they have on the whole day! Sunlight and serenity should be the keynotes—and are, of an ideal breakfast table I just saw. . . . Canary yellow and turquoise Monterey pottery, on a yellow and white table cloth. . . . Cute, squatty creamers and sugars, and big salts and peppers. Yellow and pale peach Calat flowers. . . . CALIFORNIA PATIO POTTERY, 414 W. Fourth.

ESQUIRE, JR.

CLOTHES make the man. . . . Even the very young man must be neat, trim and all in one piece, which demands plenty of durability in his clothes. . . . The well-dressed schoolboy is wearing whipcord trousers ($1.49) or tweedwool cord slacks ($2.95), with zipper jackets to match. . . . A polo shirt, or tuck-in, completes the outfit—79c and $1. . . . VANDERMAST'S, Broadway at Fourth.

SCHOOL DAY APPETITES

GRANDMA'S cooky crock went pent with bustles and buggies, but the memory lingers on. . . . And after-school appetites haven't abated. . . . Modern mothers have their cookies and play bridge too. . . . Merely stop at EATON'S BAKERY, Grand Central Market, and stock up—date cookies and peanut bars, especially.

STEAM-O-LET PERMANENT

STEAM—hand-maid to beauty. . . . Its beneficial effects discovered long ago by the ancient civilizations of the East—introduced in the first Turkish Bath. . . . The secret of Grandma's clear complexion and soft, shining hair. . . . Modern version of Granny's old reliable steam kettle—the Steam-O-Let Permanent. . . . A hundred per cent steam wave, that can only be given on a Steam-O-Let machine. . . . Preliminary treatment with a special preparation whose base is Vegco Oil. . . . CARLSTON BEAUTY SALON, 607 N. Main.

HOTPOINT AUTOMATIC IRONER

"I've been ironing all morning and my back is broken." How often have you heard that complaint, or made it yourself? In the annual list of household casualties, electric shock and burn from frayed iron cords and faulty connections are among the top of the heap. . . . And have you ever labored with a flat iron over a crease in hubby's trousers? If so, you'll pardon my enthusiasm over the Hotpoint Automatic Ironer. . . . Heavy, stubborn submission pressed into the shoe, thus protecting fingertips from burns. . . . All the quality of the famous House of Hotpoint. DUNSTAN ELECTRIC CO., 213 N. Broadway.

SPORTS Roundup

By EDDIE BRIETZ

NEW YORK. (AP)—Max Schmeling is convinced the crowd controlling Joe Louis is freezing him out of a return match because they are afraid he'll lick Joe again and romp off with the title. Schmeling, who has been out of a lot of money, will return home any day now with his own ideas of American sportsmanship and fair play. . . . Baron Gottfried Von Cramm not only will add a lot of tone to the national tennis championships at Forest Hills, but he's liable to win the singles. . . . If not, why is Donudge better than an even money choice?

Lou Gehrig, the iron man of the Yankees, picked up two checks this week, but hurried 'em back at the pitchers. . . . Lou lectured as a "professor" at Columbia university's baseball school and was rewarded with a check. . . . He returned it, saying he was a Columbia man and happy to appear gratis. . . . Lou received another check from his radio sponsor for the broadcast on which the slugger pulled his well known honor by naming the wrong breakfast food. . . . He returned this one, also. . . . The sponsor returned the check with a letter saying every ball player is entitled to three strikes—so this time Lou banked it.

Too had they overlooked John Henry Lewis, the light heavyweight king (and a real champ) when presenting the champions at the Yankee stadium Monday night. . . . Bill Terry's new Giant contract puts him ahead of Mickey Cochrane in the managerial salary race. . . . Tommy Farr begins his theatrical "career" with a routine on the steel pier at Atlantic City Saturday night.

Coaches Miles Creighton and Phil Handler of the Chicago football Cardinals are going strong for southwest conference material this year. . . . Eleven stars from that territory are getting trials. . . . Somebody asked Tommy Farr what he thought of Joe Louis' punches. . . . "If I'd seen 'em coming," replied the Welshman, "I wouldn't have got in the way of 'em, you bet."

Charlie Goldman of Syracuse will buy the contract of Lightweight Champion Lou Ambers

N. Y. Drops Cards 7 Games Behind

By BILL BONI Associated Press Sports Writer

The National league inter-sectional series that were supposed to provide so much of the answer to the still-present question, "Who's going to cop the pennant?" end today. But as far as any decisive settlement of the issue is concerned, everything is as clear as this morning's coffee grounds. The Giants, back on top by those same two percentage points that separated them from the Cubs on Tuesday night, planned to send Harry Gumbert against the Cardinals in the final engagement of their series that stands deadlocked at one-all as the result of the Terrymen's 7-3 win yesterday.

The Cubs, drubbed by the Dodgers in the second encounter of their three-game set, 6-4, pinned their hopes on Bill Lee in their season's farewell—barring appearance in the World Series—to the East. If anything has been decided during this last week, it is that the Giants are stronger at home than the Cubs are on the road. But this was evident before the game, and feathers started flying—and besides, the positions will be reversed when the Giants invade the West for the last time 12 days from now.

The two top teams have outdistanced pursuit. That drubbing by the Giants dropped the Cards 7½ games off the pace, while the once-threatening Pirates, losing their seventh straight to the Phils by 5-3, now are 11 games behind.

That's the same margin that continues to split the American league-leading Yanks from the Tigers. Denny Galehouse of the Indians stopped the Ruppert riot squad with seven hits, 4-2, but at the same time the Tigers were bowing, 8-2, to some very fine elbowing by Wes Ferrell and hard hitting by the other Senators.

In the National league the Bees and Reds swapped good pitching. Paul Derringer checking Boston, 2-1, on six hits, and Lou Fette returning the compliment for the Bees, 4-1, on eight.

Rain stopped the Red Sox-White Sox double-header, but not before Lefty Grove had won a six-inning, 2-0, shutout. The Athletics sneaked out of the cellar and dropped the Browns in by trimming them, 5-2.

when Lou's manager, Al Weill, goes into the hippodrome as matchmaker this month. . . . Alberto Weill, the Argentine, who has been doing all right on the coast, is headed East to try his luck. . . . Like Gene Tunney, Tommy Farr reads the classics and can quote Shakespeare like nobody's business. . . . Gus Greenlee says his boy, John Henry Lewis, will fight Joe Louis for an Irish sweepstakes ticket.

OGLE SERIES
"Everyday Observations" titles a new series of broadcasts from KVQE to be made by Joel Ogle, well known Santa Ana amateur, beginning tonight at 7:45.

Recently concluding the series entitled "Orange County People You Should Know," Ogle will continue in a different vein with interesting commentaries on the interesting aspects of so-called "common" things, each of which offers a worthwhile idea. "Everyday Observations" will be scheduled on KVQE each Thursday night at the same hour.

REEFERS, ACRES

How one of the country's largest crops of marihuana was concealed in the center of a corn field, and the steps made by authorities in locating the hidden supply of that drug will be told in another exciting "Calling All Cars" drama, titled "Reefers for the Acres," and heard on KVQE and the Mutual-Don Lee network tonight beginning at 8 o'clock.

N. Y. SINGERS

Audrey March, songstress, and Alan Roberts, romantic tenor, join Gus Haenschen and his orchestra as guest soloists for his broadcast of current popular songs by KVQE and the Mutual-Don Lee network, tonight at 8:45.

CRAEMER TONIGHT

Justus Craemer of Orange, chairman of the Republican state central committee and assistant state director of public works, will be interviewed tonight on the junior chamber of commerce broadcast from San Francisco. The program will be heard from KVQE.

RACE ENTRANTS

A preview broadcast of the forthcoming Gold Cup Hydroplane race will bring to the Mutual microphone three speed boat champions, Gar Wood, Kaye Don and Count Theo Rossi, for an interview on KVQE and the nationwide Mutual network, tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock.

'BEAUTY, BEAST'

Dolores del Rio and Boris Karloff, of all combinations, will be Music Hall guests tonight, KFI at 8. Guest vocalist will be Mario Chamlee, opera tenor, with Bob Burns, et al.

Townsend News, Views

By
WALTER R. ROBB

J. Etta Bryant, president of Costa Mesa Club No. 1, announces something new at her club's meeting at 7:30 tonight in Costa Mesa Townsend hall, at Twenty-second and Newport boulevard. A real, genuine wedding is the unusual happening. The folks who know all say everybody will be surprised when they learn the identity of the couple. A lot of folks will be present tonight to see the bride and groom take their marriage vows in a Townsend meeting. Ice cream and cake will be served.

The Oceanview club is up and coming these days. Last Tuesday evening the writer and wife journeyed out to a pot-luck dinner staged in the Oceanview school by this group. Talk about cats—the tables were just loaded with good old-fashioned country fried chicken and the other things which go to make up the menu of a farmer's table. After the dinner the writer addressed the group relative to the best ways and methods of obtaining the Townsend objectives. Two weeks from that evening another dinner and meeting will be held. W. T. Vanduff, club president, was in charge of the meeting.

Huntington Beach Club No. 1 is meeting at 7:30 this evening in Memorial hall, on Sixth street, for an evening of entertainment furnished by "Miranda," of radio fame. A. D. Marshall, president of the club, requests that all bring their Townsend song books. An admission fee of 25 cents for adults and 15 cents for children will be charged.

Israel Santee, president of Santa Ana Club No. 1, will be in the chair tonight when at 7:30 the meeting of the club will be called to order in the Roosevelt school, in the 800 block on East First street. The public is welcome. Walter R. Robb will speak.

Costa Mesa Club No. 2 is meeting at 7:30 tomorrow evening in the Townsend club building. H. F. Robertson, president, will be in charge and will introduce L. C. Carlisle of Santa Ana, who will address the meeting. At 6:30 a pot-luck dinner.

Tonight is the regular meeting night of the Buena Park Townsend club. S. L. Skinner will preside when the session is called to order in the Buena Park woman's clubhouse at 7:30.

L. C. Carlisle will address the Santa Ana Club No. 3 at 7:30 this evening in Santa Ana Townsend hall, at 509 West Fourth street. Philip S. Doolittle will preside.

John W. Sauers will be the speaker for Santa Ana Club No. 11 at 7:30 tomorrow evening in the Franklin school, at 1512 West Fourth street. Fred Seifert, president, will introduce the speaker and preside over the meeting.

The Rev. Julia N. Budlong, pastor of the Unitarian church, at Eighth and Bush streets, in Santa Ana, where club No. 10 will meet at 7:30 tomorrow evening, will address the group. R. E. Marks, president, writes that Paul Velez will have charge of the singing. The public will be welcome.

Walter R. Robb will speak at 7:30 tomorrow evening before Santa Ana Club No. 7, in the Orange Avenue Christian church, at Orange and McFadden streets. George W. Lounsbury, president, will preside. The speaker's subject will be "How Can We Best Promote the Townsend Plan?"

Santa Ana Club No. 9 will meet at 7:30 tomorrow evening in the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Holloway, at 2027 Cypress street. Holloway will be in charge. The membership is asked to be present.

Orange Club No. 2 will meet in Townsend club building, at 149 South Glassell street, at 7:30 tomorrow evening, with Judge L. F. Coburn in the chair.

The members of the teaching profession in Los Angeles should wake up to the value of the Townsend plan as a pension or annuity measure, now that an injunction has been served on the board of supervisors to restrain them from setting a tax rate for Los Angeles of 48 cents per $100 assessed valuation higher than last year, for the purpose of creating a retirement fund of $580,000 for teachers' benefits. If teachers want adequate retirement when the period of usefulness is over, the Townsend plan, enacted into law, would provide that very thing, only more generous than they are seeking. The writer thinks the time not far off when they will awaken, as well as the rest of the public, to the need of providing funds for retirement annuities by some other method than a direct tax on property. There is a limit beyond which property owners can go in the way of tax payments on their property holdings. The Townsend transaction tax method is the sensible, equitable, efficient method by which funds can be raised without hurt to anyone but with real benefit to all citizens, including property owners.

The earliest complete clock of which there is certain record was made by a Saracen mechanic in the 13th century.

NEW PENSION LAW TAKES EFFECT TODAY

A liberalized old age security law today made it unnecessary for applicants for old age benefits to give liens on their homes or other real estate.

Liens given since last July 2 when the new law was passed and before it went into effect yesterday will be cancelled, County Welfare Director Jack W. Snow said. This ruling permitted his office to take care of most applications during the summer, thus eliminating the possibility of a rush of applicants. The new law will not affect responsibility of relatives. Snow pointed out. Contributions of children will not be considered a part of the extra $15 a month allowable income, but still will be deducted from the maximum $35 old age security allowance.

Source from which the additional $15 a month may be derived is specified in the new statute. "Earnings and rental of rooms will be the main sources of extra money," Snow said.

"Only in cases where recipients are living in their own homes will the rent free deduction now in effect be removed, according to the new law," he explained. This, he said, is intended to provide the recipients with funds to maintain their property in usable condition and to pay taxes.

Figures on the number of security recipients affected by the new law were being compiled by the county welfare staff today.

FIRST BEETS GO TO FACTORY

Officials of the Holly Sugar company rushed preparations today for the opening of the factory on Saturday.

First shipments of sugar beets were received at the plant today, and machinery was being made in readiness for the annual sugar beet campaign which will be launched Saturday.

Approximately 1000 men are to be given work in the sugar beets this year. This number is divided between those who are engaged in employment in the factory processing beets and those in the field harvesting the crop.

Manager E. J. Strohoff of the sugar plant said he expects the campaign to run about 60 days this year, a normal season in recent years. Prior to a few years ago, when more acreage was planted to sugar beets in this county, campaigns usually lasted about 90 days.

Officials of the Holly and Los Alamitos Sugar companies are planning to secure heavy plantings in Imperial valley to secure more beets for processing. These beets will be processed in the local factory, and the plan is to run them through in April, May and June.

Through this extra program, about 500 more men are expected to be given work at the local factory.

BREAKFASTERS HEAR MARIMBA

Marimbaphone music by Dr. Ralph Murane proved a delight to Breakfast club members this morning at the meeting in the Main cafeteria. Dr. Murane played a medley in which was included "Trees," "In the Shade of the Old Apple Tree," "Let the Rest of the World Go By," "Good Night Sweetheart," and "Mighty Lak a Rose." His encore numbers were "Mother Macree" and "Smiles."

His attempt to substitute President Hunter as the marimbaphone operator was resisted by the membership.

Guests introduced were Preston Turner, assistant district attorney; Cy Featherly, commander of the local American Legion; Everett Ely Parks, architect; and Bill Davis, of the West Coast theater. The program for next Thursday was assigned to Dr. Chas. V. Doty.

Hamilton Wins Speech Contest

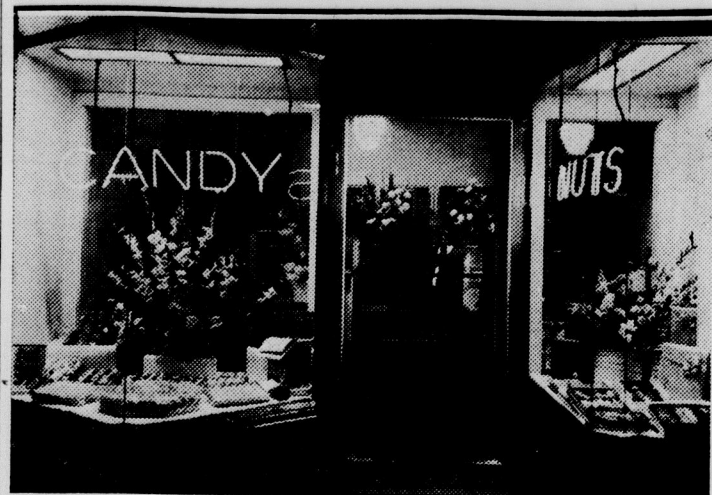

Speaking on "Travel Impressions," Dwight Hamilton won first place in the speaking contest of Smedley chapter of Toastmasters at its meeting last evening at Daniger's. Second place was won by George DeRouillac with his discussion of activities of the present administration. T. E. McLeod spoke on "Work to Do." "Ships of War" was the title of the talk by Robert Scove. James N. Anderson talked on "The American Legion."

Paul Crittenden presided as toastmaster with Eugene Kruger as general critic and George Angell as dictionary critic. J. Lee Woods, Walter Ferris, H. O. Ensign, Fred Walker and Ralph C. Smedley acted as critics for the individual speakers.

Arthur Ecklund and Don R. Equals were visitors.

Candyland's New Home

Here is Candyland in its new location at 503 North Main street, to which it moved last Saturday, after 15 years in the candy business in Santa Ana. This shop, operated by Mrs. Mildred Decker, makes all its own candy.

'GEISHA GIRL' HERE TONIGHT

"The Geisha Girl" opens tonight at the high school auditorium, the second of three performances of the musical play being given in this county by the Orange County Federal Music Project in collaboration with the San Diego unit. When the curtain rises at 8:15, it will again set in motion a lively performance which has Charles Cannon doing the male comedy lead and little Carmen Conger cast as O Mimosa San.

Others in the principal roles are Jack Dawson as the dashing Reginald Fairfax, an officer attached to the H. M. S. "The Turtle"; Barbara Beck, as the petite French girl, the tea house interpreter; Robert Baker, as the over-bearing Marquis Imari, and Genevieve Roberts, as Molly Seamore, madcap English girl visiting Japan.

While the principal roles are assumed in the main by a cast of 23 from the San Diego project, five members of the Orange county chorus also assume principal roles. The remainder of the chorus ensemble augments the cast in singing the chorus measures from the opera's score to the orchestral accompaniment of the symphony orchestra under the direction of Julius Lieb.

The stage action is under the direction of William G. Stewart, veteran stage director, who has produced over 250 operas ranging from Gilbert and Sullivan to the Wagnerian Ring.

Tickets for the production are on sale all day today at the Santa Ana high school box office at popular admission prices. Tomorrow evening the final performance will be given in Laguna Beach.

Aged Anaheim Man Is Robbed

Sheriff's officers today were on the lookout for two men who are asserted to have taken $20 from an elderly Anaheim man yesterday.

Chief of Police James Boudin of Anaheim informed sheriff's officers to watch for the men as described by William Allen, 403 South Philadelphia street, the victim. Allen, according to reports, had just received his state old age pension check when the men are asserted to have called on him and taken the money.

Fines Pour $3186 Into S. A. Coffers

The month of August was a profitable one for Santa Ana, City Judge J. G. Mitchell's report showed today.

Total collections for last month in city court amounted to $3186.75, an increase of $543.74 over last year and a jump of $1333.30 over August of 1935. Of the total collected by Judge Mitchell, $2516.30 will go to the fund for street improvements, and $670.45 will go into the general fund, his report shows.

CHICKENS STOLEN
Horace Pearson, 706 Harbor boulevard, reported to the sheriff's office this morning that 20 of his fryers had been stolen. He said they had been taken some time last night or Tuesday evening.

WINTER CROP PROGRAM IS OUTLINED

California producers of winter wheat and such crops as cotton and sugar beets have been advised by the agricultural adjustment administration to consider probable provisions of the 1938 agricultural conservation program in making plans for plantings this fall.

Seedings of soil-depleting crops not to exceed 80 per cent of the 1937 soil-depleting base acreages are suggested by AAA officials. Provision for soil-depleting acreages are expected to be lower in the 1938 program than in 1937.

Most farmers who keep seedings to 80 per cent of the 1937 soil-depleting base should qualify for the 1938 program. However, individual farmers who have large percentages of their crop land in soil-depleting bases will find it necessary to make a greater adjustment in order to meet 1938 program requirements.

Plantings for 1938 of 80 per cent of 1937 soil-depleting bases are suggested at this time to guide farmers who need this information in advance of announcement of full details of the 1938 agricultural conservation program. Approximately 2,000,000 acres of fall plantings are made by California farmers.

APPLE GROWING BOOK PRINTED

Hints to prospective apple growers, including advice on how to lay out an orchard and spray trees and the yields that may be expected in different apple-growing sections, are contained in "Apple Growing in California," a reprint bulletin of the University of California agricultural experiment station, now available from the farm advisor's office at Santa Ana.

The bulletin treats every phase of apple-growing. It begins with a discussion of the different apple-growing sections with the idea of guiding the prospective grower to a proper location for his orchard.

GOES TO JAIL
Jessie Stevens, 20, carpenter's helper who lives at Route 1, Box 825, Anaheim, yesterday started serving a 25 days term in the county jail for petty theft. He was given a sentence of 25 days or a fine of $50.

Foreign sales of farm equipment from the United States have reached their highest peak since the early part of 1931, government statistics show.

Owner of Huge Jewel Asks Cops to Party

COLORADO SPRINGS. (AP)—Mrs. Evalyn Walsh McLean is going to give a party for policemen, but not to promote protection for her Hope diamond.

Even before announcing plans for the party to be held Saturday night at the Cheyenne Mountain Country club, Mrs. McLean had made it plain she does not fear the huge diamond which she wears almost constantly would be stolen. "Why, no one would steal this—what would they do with it?" she laughingly replied to a friend's inquiry.

The guest list which Mrs. McLean announced last night is not so large as that for her party last winter which required the addition of another ballroom to her home near Washington, but it included the elite of western police officers.

GETS LIFE FOR KILLING GIRL

DETROIT. (AP)—Joseph Jacobs, confessed killer of the 10-year-old daughter of his "best friend," was sentenced today to life at hard labor in the Northern Branch state prison at Marquette, Mich.

Circuit Judge Harry B. Keidan pronounced sentence after Jacobs, sobbing and near collapse, had pleaded guilty to first degree murder. The 45-year-old defendant admitted that he beat Evelyn Mack to death with an automobile crank Monday afternoon after she had accompanied him on a trip into the country.

In several statements after the slaying, Jacobs said "I don't know why I did it," and "I must have been crazy." His wife said he had irrational spells after death of a daughter who would have been the same age as the Mack girl.

Smallest Baby In Incubator

The smallest baby ever born in St. Joseph's hospital was three days old and reported still "progressing rapidly" today. The tiny infant, who weighed only one pound and 15 ounces at birth Monday morning, is Caroline Byron, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Byron of Anaheim. Born prematurely, the little girl was placed in an incubator with the constant attention of three nurses and attendants.

250 FULLERTON CANNERS FORM NEW UNION

CHARTER FOR NEW UNION
IS RECEIVEDVal Vita Group Meets
At Buena Park

The charter of Cannery Workers Union No. 21157, the first cannery union in Orange county, was installed last night for 250 new members, all employees of the Val Vita plant of Fullerton, at a meeting in the Buena Park American Legion hall.

The union is affiliated with the American Federation of Labor, and selected temporary officers at the session.

In the meantime, the A. F. of L. union strike at the Mississippi Glass company plant that adjoins the Val Vita plant west of Fullerton, continues. According to labor officials the union men have agreed with the employers on all points, including the closed shop and time and a half over time, except the wage question. It is hoped that strike will be settled this week. It has been under way, with the plant picketed, for more than two months.

According to Barney Culpepper of Los Angeles, Southern California representatives of the A. F. of L. organization of workers' units in Southern California is advancing rapidly. Others who assisted in installing the charter were J. A. Trendle of Santa Ana, secretary of the central labor council, Hal Ewing of Anaheim and Mrs. Fernald.

WATER DISTRICT
ADDS TRACT

Buena Park today had decided on annexation of tract 262, extending south to Orangeflorio boulevard, to the county water district No. 2, and six election officials may get their $5 for the day after all.

Two precincts, one inside and one outside Buena Park, voted 57 to 3 yesterday for annexation to the county water district at an election called July 6 by the board of supervisors.

Payment of election officials had been left in doubt after no clause could be found in the law permitting payment of fees by the board of supervisors. County Clerk J. M. Backs said today, however, that he would confer with District Attorney W. F. Menton and believed a way out could be found.

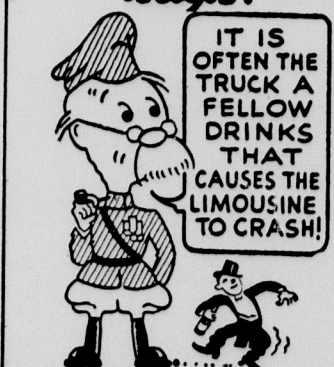

The inside precinct at Buena Park voted for the annexation 31 to 0, and the outside precinct favored annexation 26 to 3.

Election officials who may get their $5 if Backs is successful in finding the law are Nila West, Edna M. Don, Evelyn Sutherland, Mary A. Swain, Mrs. Ellen Nelson, and Mrs. Laura E. Roush.

They aren't building their own houses any more. Members of a CCC camp, 10 miles east of here, cut piles of brush, thinking the muskrats would use the material to build houses. But the animals waited until the water levels had risen, plastered mud over the brush piles and moved in.

Report Theft of
Two Automobiles

Two stolen cars were reported to sheriff's officers yesterday.

Jack Albright, who lives at the Santa Ana Country club, reported his car had been stolen from the club sometime between 10 p. m. Monday and 8:45 p. m. yesterday.

The sheriff's office received a stolen car report from the Orange police department yesterday in which a car belonging to S. M. Ogles, 503 Main street, Olive, was involved. The car was apparently taken from its parking place at the northeast corner of El Rodeo street, Orange, last night, the report said.

Makes New Denial
Of Love Theft

Mrs. Ruby Bush, secretary to City Auditor Lloyd Banks, yesterday had entered another denial of the charge that she stole the love of George Arthur Crooke, salesman for a Los Angeles water pipe concern.

In answer to the amended complaint of Mrs. Edith P. Crooke, who asks $25,000 damages for alienation of affections, Mrs. Bush alleges that the Crooke had been separated for more than five years at the time she met Crooke, and that any "affections, actions or conduct, if any, which said George Arthur Crooke has shown to this defendant had been voluntarily given and bestowed... without any action whatsoever on the part of this defendant."

Mrs. Crooke's first complaint was thrown out on a demurrer. After Superior Judge G. K. Snodell ruled it was not definite enough as to the time within which the alleged alienation occurred. Mrs. Bush's answer today was filed by Lew Blodgett, Santa Ana city attorney.

CHEST OFFICE WILL OPEN
IN ELKS CLUBSpace Donated by S.A.
Lodge for Campaign

Santa Ana's Community Chest campaign office will open tomorrow in the Elks club building, it was announced today by J. B. Tucker, president of the chest.

Space has been donated by the Elks club for the office, where preparations for the campaign to be launched early in October will be made.

URGERS SUPPORT

Arrangements for use of the Elks club quarters were made through Gilbert P. Campbell, chairman of the board of trustees of the Elks and member of the executive committee of the Community Chest. Campbell said the chest is the only outside organization which is permitted use of the Elks building.

"The board of trustees and members of the Elks lodge are glad to have this opportunity to provide quarters for the Community Chest, for we feel that this important philanthropic and civic movement should have the whole-hearted support of every organization interested in the betterment of our city," Campbell said.

VOLUNTEERS TO MEET

During the intensive campaign period early in October the report luncheon meetings of volunteer workers will be held in the Elks club dining room, and facilities for office and luncheon meetings in the same location will be a distinct advantage to the hundreds of men and women who will serve without pay in the campaign organization, Tucker said.

Plans for the campaign now are being laid by officers of the chest, and an announcement of leaders selected for the various departments of the organization will be made at an early date, Tucker announced.

Must Face Trial
on Check Charge

Basil W. Brice, 18-year-old San Jacinto boy, was held to answer to the superior court Tuesday in justice court by Judge Chris P. Pann on charges of issuing a forged check Aug. 20 to a local garageman.

His companion, Wayne Perkins, 25, San Diego, was dismissed on motion of the prosecution. Brice was confined to the county jail in lieu of bail set at $10,000.

The defendant will answer in superior court Friday.

BERRY URGES
LOYALTY
TO TOWNSENDHundreds Gather for Birch Park Meeting

Several hundred Orange county Townsend club members gathered last night in Birch park to hear Dr. Ernest Berry, Los Angeles, discuss the old age pension plan.

The meeting was presided over by Grant Henderson, president of Townsend hall administrative board, who also led the community singing. The accompanist was Mrs. Dell Benton.

Dr. Berry urged Townsend club members to remain loyal to Dr. Townsend, saying that safety for the movement lies in that direction alone. He denied claims of opponents of the Townsend plan that inflated prices would result from putting the pension plan into operation.

Following the mass meeting and concert by the National Youth Administration boys' band under direction of T. Dunstan Collins, a meeting of Townsend club officers of the county was held in Townsend hall. Plans were made for a club membership contest which is to run from Sept. 1 to Nov. 30.

Exonerate Driver
In Tourist Death

A coroner's jury yesterday exonerated James Napier Gilmore, 44, Los Angeles, in the death of A. R. Shepherd, 71-year-old Kentucky tourist, who was struck down last Friday on the Coast highway near San Clemente.

At the same time that the jury exonerated Gilmore, it was found that Shepherd also had been struck by another car. The car did not stop, and no license number had been obtained, the verdict showed.

Meanwhile, investigation into the death of James W. Goss, Buena Park, who was killed a week ago, will continue. Robert Gardner, deputy district attorney, announced today he will carry on the investigation.

Babcock Scares
Away Prowler

A bold prowler attempted to crawl into the home of L. H. Babcock, 1128 West First street, last night. Babcock, who was awakened by the intruder, leaped out of bed and made a grab at the man.

The prowler got away. In grabbing at the prowler, Babcock fell over a baby's crib, causing a cut over his left eye. He was treated by a local doctor.

What To Do . . .
If Someone Apparently Drowns

1. Start artificial respiration immediately after the body is pulled out. Persons "apparently drowned" have been revived after as long as 20 to 30 minutes under water.
2. Get a doctor.
3. Loosen any tight clothing. Keep the patient warm and lying down.
4. Do not give him any liquid until he is fully conscious.

By the (P) Feature Service

Here is the prone pressure method of artificial respiration endorsed by the American Red Cross:

Lay the patient on his stomach with one arm extended, the other bent at the elbow so that his face, turned outward, rests on his hand or forearm. His nose and mouth should be low and unobstructed.

Kneel, straddling his thighs. Place the palms of your hands on the small of his back with little fingers just touching his lowest ribs.

With arms extended, swing forward gradually, bringing your weight to bear upon him. (Don't press too hard if you're big and he's small.) Take about two seconds for this. It compresses the lungs.

Next, swing back quickly to remove the pressure. This lets the lungs expand. After two seconds, swing forward again. Repeat the whole procedure 12 to 15 times a minute for several hours if necessary or until a doctor pronounces the person dead.

TWELVE GIVEN
TRAFFIC FINES

Twelve persons were fined in city court yesterday by Judge J. G. Mitchell for traffic violations.

Those fined for speeding were Mae Norton, Los Angeles, $6; James M. Hirsch, Los Angeles, $5; Harry F. Izenour, jr., Westwood, $8; Fred W. Robertson, Santa Ana, $8; William G. Cramer, Van Nuys, $15; Harold Eastham, Santa Ana, $8; Robert J. Doyle, Santa Ana, $8; and La Verne V. Holmes, Costa Mesa, $8.

Overtime parkers fined were W. A. Proctor, Santa Ana, $1; A. M. Astor, Los Angeles, $1; and G. H. Dilley, Santa Ana, $1. Noah Dickson, Santa Ana, was fined $2 for failure to make a boulevard stop.

LABOR PAPER
EDITOR IS
CLUB SPEAKERKiwanis Hears Weaver
In Noon Address

Labor and capital are essentially the same in the opinion of Paul Weaver, editor of the Orange county labor newspaper. This view was expressed in an address before members of the Kiwanis club yesterday in the Masonic temple.

"There is no difference between labor and capital," Weaver said. "And labor recognizes this fact. One is helpless without the other."

PROTECTION

The speaker made a comparison of the labor unions with the various medical and bar associations. These, he said, are essentially for the protection of the various professional men.

Laborers join unions for protection and for leadership just as the professional men do, Weaver declared. The individualist is no good in the labor field, and it is because of this that men organize, the speaker declared.

MEETING PLACE

The editor pointed out that there is a place where the two factions, labor and capital, can meet. He cited the American Federation of Labor's record of holding to its contracts with employers and industry.

Referring to accusations of Communist influences within the ranks of the A. F. of L., Weaver denied any association between the two. "Do not link the A. F. of L. or any of its subsidiary unions with the red element," he said.

Obarr - Aker Rites Are Recited

Father Officiates at Impressive Church Wedding Here

Unusual sentiment and significance were added to the impressively beautiful nuptial services which last night united Miss Dorothy Obarr and Cecil G. Aker in matrimony, for the formal ceremony was performed by the bridegroom's father, the Rev. Cecil M. Aker of the Spurgeon Memorial Methodist church.

The lovely blonde bride was exquisitely attired in a satin gown of her own design, with surplice bodice fastened with an heirloom cameo that had been lent her by Mrs. Walter Fine. Leg o'mutton sleeves buttoned from shoulder to wrists, and the shoulder length veil that fell over her long train was caught to the top of her head with a cluster of gardenias and was borrowed from Mrs. C. G. Haas (Juanita Decker). In her hands was a lovely shower bouquet of gardenias and bovardia and a dainty lace handkerchief was the gift of her grandmother, Mrs. J. A. Holland.

Delicate pastels in daffodil yellow and green accented by lavender, had been chosen by the bride to outfit her attendants, whose costumes were also of her creation. Her sister, Mrs. L. A. Sanford of Utah, wore a long frock of pale yellow organza, with short puffed sleeves, surplice bodice, and V-neck, and carried orchid asters. She and the four bridesmaids wore quaint little saucer halos of green organza, topped by clusters of asters in the tones of their bouquets.

The bridesmaids, wearing identical frocks in green organza, with violet velvet ribbon sashes, and deep purple asters in bouquets and hats, were Mrs. Gordon Walther, Mrs. Raymond Todd (Dora Tedford) of Anaheim, Miss Dolly Cox, and Mrs. Robert Mack. Little Betty Jo Hunter, demurely attired in the same dainty green and yellow organza with velvet ribbon sash, strewed petals before the slow-paced bridal party, and little Dale Sanford was ring-bearer.

Masses of white asters and fern and tall callalabre decorated the church wherein they took their vows in the presence of more than 400 guests, and the beautiful voice of James Nuckolls, a close family friend, was heard previous to the ceremony. Organist was Miss Henrietta Heemstra.

Ushering guests to their pews were Louis A. Sanford, Raymond Todd, Marvin Walton and Davis James, while best man was Timothy Richey.

A reception was held at the close of the ceremony, with bride and groom assisted in the receiving line by their parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Obarr and the Rev. and Mrs. Cecil Aker. Mrs. Obarr wore an attractive ensemble of blue lace with duobonnet shoes and hat, and Mrs. Aker was in soft green lace as they moved about greeting guests. Both wore roses.

Assisting in serving the wedding cake were Mrs. W. J. Sebastian, Mrs. J. P. Sebastian, Miss Fay Holland, Mrs. Harry Wheeler, Miss Martha Heemstra and Miss Margaret Fine.

Later in the evening, the new Mr. and Mrs. Aker embarked on their honeymoon trip, which will take them by way of the Grand Canyon to St. Louis, where they will reside during the coming year. The bridegroom will take his senior year in a medical school there, and both he and his bride will return to Santa Ana for a visit next June.

HACKLER FAMILY REUNION HELD IN LONG BEACH

With their annual family reunion as the incentive, 27 members of the Hackler family gathered Bixby park, Long Beach, last Sunday afternoon for a picnic lunch.

From Santa Ana were Mr. and Mrs. B. K. Hackler, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hackler, and Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Wylie with Darlene, Barbara Jean and Jimmy.

Others present were J. A. Wingate and daughter of Palms, Miss Gertrude Hackler of Venice, Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Mott, Ralph Wingate and daughter, Ralph L. SOCIETY PLANS TOUR OF RURAL AMERICA

"Rebuilding Rural America" as the study book of the year, furnished the motif for the start of a delightful travel tour to be taken by the Woman's Home Missionary society of the First Methodist church this winter when the group met yesterday afternoon.

Programs were in the form of tickets with the proper officials, stop-overs and stations carrying out the theme. Miss Mary Lamb, chairman of the program committee, explained the route, and Miss Verna Ramsey gave details of the itinerary.

Mrs. H. W. Guthrie, president, concurred the business meeting and devotionals were led by Mrs. Leonard. Mrs. E. J. Kuhne discussed citizenship and Mrs. E. J. Carhard listed the goals for the year. Mrs. Harry Hayes, accompanied by Miss Lenore Tompkins, sang two selections.

Plans were made for the district meeting to be held in the local church on Sept. 14 when Mrs. Dan Brummit will be featured speaker.

Later in the evening, the new Mr. and Mrs. Aker embarked on their honeymoon trip, which will take them by way of the Grand Canyon to St. Louis, where they will reside during the coming year.

The bridegroom will take his senior year in a medical school there, and both he and his bride will return to Santa Ana for a visit next June.

Hotel Laguna Setting For Luncheon

Three charming blonde hostesses yesterday entertained at one of the most outstanding of late summer parties, using the lovely Hotel Laguna as setting for luncheon and bridge.

Mrs. John Newman, Mrs. Burt Zaiser, and Mrs. Don Harwood received their guests in attractive hostess frocks, and each wore a beautiful corsage selected particularly for her costume by Mrs. Carl V. Newman, mother-in-law of Mrs. Newman. The latter wore creamy gardenias with delicate green afternoon frock. Mrs. Harwood wore vivid red tuberous begonias on her sheer black, and Mrs. Zaiser's frock of delphinium blue with dark red sash was set off by dark red roses. The three made an unusually attractive picture for all are striking with their golden hair.

No one color scheme or motif was carried out, but masses of beautiful blossoms of all sorts, asters, marigolds, zinnias and dahlias, from the gardens of Dr. E. J. Anderson, were used in the dining room. Smaller nosegays tied with green cellophane ribbons decorated the U-shaped luncheon tables, with streamers running their length.

Contract games were played in the lounge overlooking the ocean, with interludes of strolling in the flower-fragrant patio near by. At the close of the afternoon four beautiful high-score prizes were awarded, all beautifully hand-wrought pewter made by Mrs. Newman. Winners of the awards were Mrs. Joel Ogle, Mrs. Edmund Linsbard, Mrs. Frank Harrington and Mrs. Harold Harrison.

The Mesdames Kingsley Tuttle, Wilbur Barr, Edward Hall, Horace Stevens, Fred Forgy, Rola Hays, Jr., Richard Winkler, Lyman Farwell, Thoburn White, Frank Harrington, Harold Harrison, Shirley Anderson, Leland Finley, Oliver Lindemeyer.

BETTY TIMMONS ENTERTAINS BRIDGE CLUB

In one of the first sessions since organization a few weeks ago, Miss Betty Timmons entertained members of her bridge club for an evening of games in her home, Red Hill, Tustin.

Prizes for the evening consisted of dainty handkerchiefs and were awarded to Josephine Flaherty and Helen Andrew for high scores. The hostess served a dessert course to her college friend guests late in the evening.

With the game going on in the home as the setting for the informal affair, guests played pool and ping pong between hands of bridge. Miss Helen Andrew will be hostess to the group in her home next week.

Members of the club, organized after many of the group left to us to help care for their family, are Betty Timmons, Evelyn Witt, Helen Andrew, Gloria Kirchner, Eleanor Cogan, Betty Bradley, Winifred Pettit, and Jo Flaherty.

FRISBYS FETE MRS. McCALLA ON ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Frisby were host and hostess recently in their home at a pleasant little affair. They had asked Mr. and Mrs. R. H. McCalla and Bobbie to dinner with them and their son, Eugene, and were joined in time for dessert by four additional couples.

Incentive for the affair was Mrs. McCalla's birthday anniversary, and she was completely surprised not only by the celebration, but by a number of pretty gifts that were presented to her.

Cards later resulted in high and low score prizes going to Archie Perkins and V. C. Shidler. Guests at the affair, which was also a farewell to the host and hostess, who are leaving tomorrow on a vacation in the east, were Mr. and Mrs. Grover Pultz, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Thorman, Mr. and Mrs. Archie Perkins, Mr. and Mrs. McCalla and Mr. and Mrs. V. C. Shidler.

To prepare dates so they will blend better with other ingredients in cooked dishes, cover them with a little hot water or milk. That will soften them.

GARDEN SECRETS

By WILLIS CADWALLADER Of Blanding Nurseries

"In this bright little package, Now isn't it odd, You've a dime's worth of something Known only to God."

EDGAR A. GUEST.

Many of the annual and perennial seeds are not sure to germinate the second year. The seed houses are very careful to place on the market only fresh seed, thus insuring the customer of good quality seed.

To us "ordinary mortals" not using seed of difficult germination, the method of sowing and nursing is the question of utmost importance.

The seeds are best sown in flats of two or three-inch depth and filled with a sandy loam to within one-half inch of the top. Well-rotted cow manure or compost may be added with beneficial results, but never use fresh manure as this will burn the newly sprouted plants.

Seed may be sown in rows or broadcast, but it is generally better to broadcast and transplant later to the row.

The depth to cover the seed varies with the size. A good rule to follow is to cover the seed to its own thickness. Is it better to cover the seed too shallow rather than too deep.

Seeds do not want to be crowded. The seeds should not touch one another as this makes it easier for the fungi to develop.

A good light mulch is desirable and peat moss is the best material to use. The peat moss should be spread quite thin as otherwise a smothering of the seed may result. Sawdust is not a good material to use as the wood may rot, causing fungi to enter the seedlings. It is often beneficial to shade the seed flats at first and gradually increase the light as the plants become further advanced.

A disease very common to seedlings is a fungus known as damping off. This fungus attacks the tiny plants at the surface of the ground, thus shutting off the circulation and the plant dies. A great help in the prevention of this disease is the use of a mercuric compound dusted or sprayed over the surface of the seed bed. It is also quite helpful if the seeds are pre-treated, dusted, or soaked in a mercuric solution before they are sown. Mercuric compounds may be had from the nurseryman under the trade names of Uspulin, Semesan or Kirosh.

GARDEN CLUB CHOOSES MRS. WOLFF

Election of Mrs. Grace Wolff to the presidency of Better Gardens' club occurred at the regular meeting of that organization held this week at her home, 1915 North Ross street. Miss Eunice Adams was named secretary-treasurer, and Miss Lana Brokaw, Mrs. T. E. McLeod, and Miss Ada McFadden were elected to the program committee.

Mrs. McLeod was also named in charge of the club's project for the county flower show, and will be assisted by Mrs. Carroll Niswanger and Miss Hazel Thrasher. A delightful feature of the evening was a tour of Mrs. Wolff's garden to witness the blooming of her beautiful cactus. Later refreshments were served, and it was announced that the club's September meeting on the 21st would be at the home of Miss Adams, 203 West Nineteenth street.

MRS. MAYHILL HOSTESS TO BRIDGE CLUB

Convening for the first time since summer recess, Mrs. N. E. Mayhill's little evening card club had a pleasant reunion meeting at her home last night, although several of the members were absent, still vacationing.

First and second high prizes went to Miss Lorraine French and Miss Louise Kiser, while Miss Lula Ott was suitably consoled. Conversation over the refreshment table later centered around holidays of various guests, among them Miss French's trip to see the quintuplets.

Members present were Miss French, Miss Harriet Whidden, Miss Lula Ott, Miss Helen Gallagher, Miss Justine Whitney, Mrs. Laura Murray, Mrs. Joe Catherine and Mrs. Mayhill, while making up an extra guest table were Miss Louise Kiser, Miss Alma Karlsson, Miss Damaris Beman and Dr. Mary E. Wright.

NAVY MAN VISITOR HERE

Mrs. T. C. Carrington, 1201 North Sycamore street, had as a visitor this week her brother, Platoon Sergeant E. L. Terry of the U. S. Marine corps who had been in Shanghai, China, for five years. Sergeant Terry was called to San Diego to assist in training a corps of marines for service in the Orient. He went to San Diego on Sunday to see the marines sail for Shanghai on board the U. S. transport ship Chaumont.

VISITORS HERE FROM CAPITAL

Mr. and Mrs. George Philippi of Hughes avenue, Tustin, entertained as guests recently their nephew and niece, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Peterson of Washington, D. C.

Other guests during part of the easterners' visit here were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Philippi and son, Donald, of Glendale.

D.A.V. Groups Have Joint Ceremony

With the Knights of Columbus hall decorated with quantities of summer flowers, Mrs. V. L. Brown was installed as commander of the Jack Fisher chapter, Disabled American Veterans auxiliary, during formal ceremonies last night.

More than 100 persons were present for the joint installation ceremonies of the post and auxiliary. Baskets of flowers were arranged at each station and on the stage, and lovely corsages were presented to each officer and visiting dignitary.

Other officials installed were Mrs. Dean Laub, state executive committee - woman; Mrs. Leo Payne, senior vice commander; Mrs. Bernard Lange, junior vice president; Mrs. Arthur Nielsen, chaplain; Mrs. R. M. Crawford, treasurer; Mrs. James Wylie, adjutant; Mrs. Olga Wood, patriotic instructor; Miss Lydia Fisher, conductress; Mrs. Frances Thatcher, banner carrier.

Others were Mrs. Emma Kelly, historian; Mrs. Eugene Riches, musician, and Mrs. Mary Fisher, Mrs. David R. Day, Mrs. Eldena Cooper and Mrs. Charles Spurrer, local executive committee-woman.

Installation rites were performed by Mrs. Harry D. Edwards, a member of the auxiliary and past state commander. She wore a wine colored dress in crepe and velvet. Mrs. Brown, in blue flowered print, Mrs. Laub, wearing yellow print, and Mrs. Crawford were presented gifts at the close of the rites.

Honored guests during the evening were Mrs. Paul Cray of Los Angeles, national junior vice commander, and Mrs. Vere Bates, also of Los Angeles, state commander of the auxiliaries.

Following the installation, refreshments were served in the dining room which was decorated with small baskets of pastel flowers. In charge of decorations were Mrs. Orlo Moncrief and Mrs. Albert Jones while Mrs. Elmer Maxson, Mrs. George Morgan, and Mrs. William Hutchinson prepared refreshments.

FULLERTON COUPLE MARRY LAST NIGHT

Miss Carolyn Pritchard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Abraham Pritchard and Robert McCormick, also of Fullerton, and son of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. McCormick, formerly of Fullerton, now of China, were married last night in the garden of the Pritchard home at 8 o'clock, when the Rev. Graham C. Hunter, pastor of the Fullerton Presbyterian church, read the single ring ceremony.

Miss Pritchard was attended by her two sisters, Mrs. Garland Roberts of Pasadena and Miss Betty Pritchard of Fullerton, for the ceremony. Attending at the bride room were Watson Lupton of Bakersfield, best man, and Garland Roberts of Pasadena.

Following the ceremony and reception the young couple started for a short trip. On their return they will live at 444 East Armerige avenue. Mr. McCormick is instructor in the mechanical arts department of the Fullerton Union High school and is a graduate of Fullerton schools and of U. C. L. A. where he was a member of Kappa Alpha fraternity. The bride also was graduated from Fullerton schools, and attended Armstrong college at Berkeley for a year. She was affiliated with Beta Sigma Delta social sorority there.

SISTERS GUESTS OF MRS. FORGY

Guests of Mrs. O. K. Forgy today at her South Sycamore street home were three sisters, Mrs. John O'Neil and Mrs. A. Rice of Whittier, and Mrs. Will Hales of Oklahoma City. The latter was Mrs. Forgy's neighbor in Santa Ana years ago, and will remain for the week-end.

A pleasant event of the day was a luncheon at Daniger's.

Follow Plan For Beauty

By JACQUELINE HUNT

If a dazzling fairy with her magic wand could suddenly appear before you and ask what you want more than anything else in the world, what would you ask for? Nine out of ten of you, if you are sixteen or thereabouts, would say, "Oh, please kind fairy, make me beautiful."

Make your own plan. Take one feature at a time and try to improve it. Start with your skin, if it is not already nice, and make it as clear and vital and young as possible.

Be sure you are always fresh and dainty. See that you have a daily bath, fresh stockings and sweetly clean underwear every day. It takes only a few minutes to squeeze them out of soapsuds at night and to add a few drops of perfumed eau de cologne to the final rinse water to give them an elusive but lasting fragrance the next day. Little sachets in the same fragrance tucked into your closets or dresser will also make you sweeter and fresher.

Use deodorants regularly. Wash your hair every week and see that your fingernails are always spotless and neat. Keep your dresses and suits aired and cleaned and pressed frequently. See that dresses that can be washed are laundered after each wearing, so there is never a hint of perspiration odor or staleness about them.

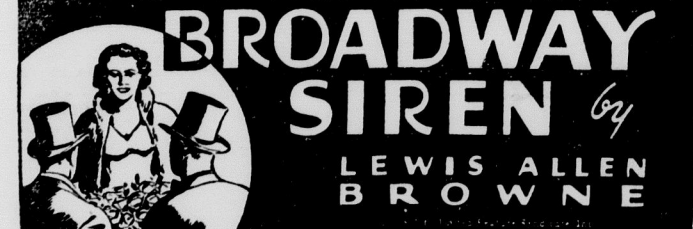

Next, do all you can to improve your figure. You rarely have to worry about the fat or scrawliness that trouble old women. But you are often terribly careless about your posture. You seem to think that it makes you appear more plump if you slouch and walk as though you were a rag doll without joints. Don't do it!

A graceful carriage is one of the biggest helps in conquering awkwardness and self-consciousness. Keep your body willowy and limber, but take exercises that will strengthen the muscles of your spine and abdomen, so you can carry yourself easily erect with your head held high and proudly.

Play tennis this summer and swim and ride if you have an opportunity. These are excellent exercises for strengthening the muscles of the entire body.

JOINT TENANCY

Mrs. May R. Caskey today had petitioned superior court for termination of the joint tenancy of the late E. D. Caskey in real estate in Santa Ana and Orange, stocks and notes aggregating $8800. Caskey died in Santa Ana Aug. 12.

CHAPTER XXXIV

IT WAS only a little past ten o'clock. At eleven Martha Carter had to sit as referee, by order of the court, in a rather unimportant case. The parties concerned were to be in her office then.

It couldn't be postponed. Of all times to have to waste valuable hours in this, it couldn't be more inopportune.

She went hurriedly over the papers of the case, but her mind was on her appointment to meet and talk with Norman Standish. Plans were forming, coming into shape out of all this mix-up.

Just as the first two of those concerned in the little case she was to referee arrived, Martha believed she had everything properly planned to handle Standish and to clear up everything at once—the Standishes and the Balcoms, and to the utter disposal of Lola Larkin!

Reluctantly, she turned to the case at hand.

How the parties concerned talked and talked! Martha furtively eyed the clock. How they dawdled over insignificant details. How they argued over trifles!

She had to follow the arguments in detail, since she could not adequately act as referee other than to do this, when her mind was on Standish and Lola and Cora and the Balcoms.

One o'clock came and they did not seem to be half through. In fact, they were not. And there was Standish to be met promptly at three! And so much to be done before that!

Finally, the last argument was made. Finally, all were gone. "If anyone calls, or barges in, Rosa," Martha said, "find out just what he wants before you report to me. I'm going to be too busy to be interrupted."

Another glance at the clock. Two-fifteen, and a world of things to accomplish before she met Standish at the St. Boritz.

Briefly—in four words, in fact—Martha's plan was this: "Get them all together!"

SHE meant to arrange things so that Cora Standish, Senator and Mrs. Balcom, Winfield Balcom, Lola Larkin—and Norman Standish—would all be brought together at the same time. It would be a show-down.

To bring this about in her office did not seem feasible. There would be too many interruptions. A far better meeting place for all of them would be at her apartment. Could she arrange it? Well, she was going to try.

First, she phoned Winfield Balcom at the Waldritz.

"Mr. Balcom," she said, "could you come to my apartment at three-thirty this afternoon?"

"Why—er—yes, Miss Carter," Winfield said hesitatingly. He was obviously puzzled.

"Miss Larkin will be there," Martha explained sweetly.

CANCEL JUNIOR DANCE

The sportsport dance scheduled to be held tomorrow night in the Santa Ana Country club has been canceled, according to Mrs. Hugh J. Lowe, co-chairman of the junior dances. The regular program for the rest of the dances will be carried out, with the next affair on Oct. 1.

A weekly waxing, requiring only a few minutes, will greatly lengthen the lives of hardwood floors. It also will save work, since the wax fills the pores in the wood and keeps out dust.

Watermelon Salad Is Timely

NEW YORK.—Now—when the picturesque watermelon wagon is a part of every city's street scene—is the time to feature watermelon salad and make a five-star feast of a sturdy, plain dinner. Combined with mint, the luscious, rose-red watermelon is cool as a breeze from the sea, colorful as rose-garden.

Oscar of The Waldorf created the watermelon salad after a Georgian connoisseur of food had deplored the fact that two of the South's most famous products—mint and watermelon—had never been combined in a recipe. His watermelon salad is today popular both above and below the Mason-Dixon line.

HERE'S THE RECIPE:

Cut the ripe portions of a well-chilled watermelon in small rectangular pieces. Put them to soak for thirty to forty minutes in melted mint jelly in refrigerator.

Then place on salad plates with lettuce leaves and sprinkle with finely chopped mint.

Serve with a dressing made of:

- 1 part honey
- 2 parts cream
- 1 part mayonnaise
- 1 teaspoon of lemon juice

Mix well.

Mites Spoil Many Outdoor Affairs

By C. N. CHRISMAN, M.D.

Chigger, harvest mite, trombiculid irritants and many other names are given to the little red bug who lives in grasses, wheat and oats and makes life miserable for so many of us.

It makes no difference what the name is. It never is bad enough. They are invisible to the naked eye, but make up for their lack of size by the irritation they cause after attaching themselves to your skin.

The bite soon becomes red, irritated and swollen. If a number of them take hold under a garter or belt, the redness and swelling become extreme and the itching intolerable, preventing rest or sleep for several nights.

Scratching only aggravates the itching and by pulling the mite's body from the head leaves it to continue the irritation and possible infection.

To many persons the chigger bite is more irritating than that of mosquitoes or fleas. Farmers and those who must work among weeds or low grasses occasionally become immune to their bite after repeated invasions. Children and women suffer the most, probably because their skins are more tender and easily penetrated.

In some countries mainly Japan and India, the chigger carries pseudo-typus or Japanese river fever to humans and is very fatal. To many persons they are a decided pest. It takes away the joy of gardening, hiking, picnicking, fishing, golfing and other outdoor sports and pleasures. Even one's lawn may be infested with the pests. Careful spraying of vegetation with sulphur by means of a dust gun or dust blower will gradually drive them from small areas. Dusting the skin and clothing with sulphur, or sulphur ointment rubbed on feet and ankles before going on a picnic or hike will discourage a chigger's interest in you.

Treatment consists of avoiding scratching but removing the mites by bathing with soap and water followed by the application of gasoline or coal oil to the spot, and a complete change of clothing.

For itching, the free use of rubbing alcohol is advised, followed by the application of boric acid ointment to which is added two per cent of carbolic acid and ½ per cent of menthol.

FRISCO PAPERS RAISE RATES

SAN FRANCISCO. (AP)—Daily newspapers of San Francisco and Oakland increased subscription prices today.

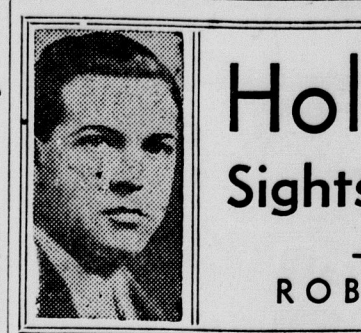

Rates in general were 15 cents per month higher and evening newspapers hitherto selling for 3 cents a copy will sell for 5 cents. Morning paper single copies remain 5 cents.

Announcements said the increases were made necessary by increases in cost of labor, material and taxes.

CLUB MEETS IN ANAHEIM

Mrs. Irene Stewart entertained members of the V. F. W. auxiliary sewing club in her home on Holder road, Anaheim, recently for an all-day meeting with a covered-dish luncheon at noon.

Those present besides the hostess were Mrs. and Mrs. F. B. Pope, Mr. and Mrs. James Sullivan, M. V. Stewart, Mrs. Esther Hendrickson, Mrs. Louise Hubbard, Mrs. Phoebe Hyatt, and Mrs. Anna Planchon.

Hollywood Sights and Sounds

— By —

ROBBIN COONS

HOLLYWOOD.—George Raft is sitting in his dressing room and he's pretty happy. He's sipping a coke and listening to the Yanks and the Braves battling it out back east, and he's hearing the ground music buzzing in the Raftian ears is a sweet chorus of "Ayes" on his performance in "Souls at Sea."

You know by now that they mused up his sleek gangster's hair and let him be a nice guy in that one, but maybe you don't know how long and how hard the boy from Hell's Kitchen has been fighting for a chance to be a hero on the screen.

SYMPATHY SEEKER

"You take fellows like Colman and Cooper," he says. "They stick around this racket as long as they do because those fans see 'em die a hero's death and do big brave things. They never play the scoundrel or the skunk. So now they're talking about putting me in 'Beau Geste.' And I say if I'm in 'Beau Geste' I'm gonna be Beau—Beau or nothin'." Raft wants that old sympathy.

George has been suspended by Paramount five times. Partly his quarrels have been over salary, but mostly over the "sympathy angle."

Ex-boxer, ex-ball player, and dancer, George clicked in the film "Scarface" and Paramount put him to work. Plenty of work—at $250 a week. He'd be finishing one picture and starting another the same day. He got tired, especially when he'd planned to go north for a football game and the studio called that off. He walked—and came back at double salary.

PROFITABLE WALKOUTS

Then there was "The Story of Temple Drake." George was cast as that degenerate heavy, and he walked again. He didn't want to be the man you love to hate. He was probably right. Jack Larrow, who played the part, found it thankful. They brought George back and signed the peace.

It got so that Raft was making pictures "between" suspensions.

When they wanted him for "Souls at Sea" he was on one of his periodic walks. He had read the script—and what a louse that character of Powdwas! Just a salt-water skunk, no less. He wouldn't do it, he said.

When you see the picture you'll realize what a change they made in Powdwas for Raft's "sympathy angle." They called him in, agreed to rewrite the part, and—as final concession—they wrote a check for $24,000, representing Raft's back salary during his latest "sympathy" suspension. None of his walks, to date, has cost him a penny.

"So I must have been right some of the time," he says, "or I wouldn't still be here."

WESTERN FILM NOW AT STATE

The State theater will show tomorrow and Saturday, a two-fist, fast-shooting, western feature film.

Bob Allen heads the bill, in a story of the Texas Rangers, "The Rangers Step In," with those three funny, rib-cracking comedians, the Three Stooges, tearing the "Wild West" apart, with laughter, in "Goofs and Saddles." Added short subjects will include a Porky cartoon, a newsreel and chapter 6 of the serial, "Jungle Jim."

Featuring Bob Allen and beautiful Eleanor Stewart, "The Rangers Step In," deals with a feud between two families, a dramatic fight for valuable railroad land, cattle rustling, and the ever-alert intervention of the courageous Texas Rangers, of which Bob Allen is a member. The family feud between the Allens and the Warners becomes doubly tragic because of the romantic thread which links the hero with the heroine, who is a member of the opposing family.

A frame-up which places Allen in the light of a murderer and almost causes his death, adds to the drama of the picture. Allen and Miss Stewart, aided by the supporting cast, lift the film into the better group of out-door, action dramas.

WARN YACHTSMEN

SAN PEDRO. (AP)—The U. S. fleet base force issued a warning to fishermen and yachtsmen that inshore waters at the northwest end of San Clemente island, off Southern California, are dangerous. This is a closed area, used for bombing and other target practice.

COMEDY-DRAMA AT BROADWAY

A completely new show opens today at the Broadway theater, presenting "Wine, Women and Horses," human interest comedy-drama with Barton MacLane, Ann Sheridan and Dick Purcell, and "Hot Water," another of the popular Jones Family series.

"Wine, Women and Horses" tells the story of a race track gambler. When he meets a lovely country girl, he falls in love and marries her. For a time he is content in a small town, but the gambling bug bites him again and he takes his wife to Santa Anita. He makes another fortune. But his wife leaves him, and from that point on the story builds up to an unusual climax.

"Hot Water" moves at a fast tempo. Jed Prouty is the small city druggist drafted by a reform group to run for mayor. Kenneth Howell, his son from college, is framed into an auto accident which appears to be the result of drinking. The crash is arranged by Joseph King, Prouty's opponent, who shows if Prouty is elected a drinking and gambling joint will be closed. The cast includes Spring Byington, Shirley Deane, Joan Marsh and Russell Gleason.

A special short subject is "Sound Effects," starring Rufe Davis, the entertainer who made such a hit in "Mountain Music" with his comic imitations. Other shorts include a musical with Rima's orchestra and world news events.

Good For Hot Breads Summer Food

By JUDITH WILSON

A hot dish is the rule this summer if you want each meal perfectly balanced, appetizing and attractive. And nothing is quite so delicious and satisfying as a crusty, fragrant hot bread or rolls.

FRUIT NUT BREAD

Soak ½ cup dried apricots for ½ hour, drain and put through a food chopper with ½ cup seedless raisins. Add to 1 cup orange juice with grated orange rind. Stir in 1 teaspoon soda, 1 cup sugar, 2 tablespoons melted butter and 1 teaspoon vanilla. Add 1 egg, well beaten, and 2 cups flour that have been sifted with ½ teaspoon salt and 1 teaspoon baking powder. Add ½ cup chopped nuts. Bake in a greased loaf pan in a moderate oven for 50 minutes. Delicious while warm with butter. Also makes nice sandwiches for tea or luncheon.

ORANGE NUT MUFFINS

Mix together 2 cups flour that has been sifted with 2 teaspoons baking powder, ¼ teaspoon salt and ½ cup sugar and 1 egg beaten and added to ½ cup milk and ½ cup orange juice. Add 1 teaspoon grated orange rind, 1 tablespoon melted butter and ½ cup chopped nut meats. Bake in greased muffin pans in a hot oven for 20-25 minutes. This makes 1 dozen muffins.

CORNISH SPLITS

Combine 1 cake compressed yeast and ¼ cup sugar. Stir until the mixture liquifies. Sift 4 cups flour and ¼ teaspoon salt, add the yeast and cut in ½ cup shortening. Add ¾ cup warm milk that has been combined with 2 well-beaten eggs. Mix quickly to form a soft dough and grease well with melted butter. Cover and let rise until double in bulk. Knead down. Form small pieces of dough into very flat cakes. Place on a baking sheet and brush with butter. Let rise until again double in bulk. Bake in a hot oven 20-25 minutes. Cool, split the side and fill with a mixture of whipped cream and apricot jam.

GAS COMPANY INCOME GAINS

SAN FRANCISCO. (AP)—Gas companies in Pacific coast territory collected more than $51,000,000 during the first half of this year from nearly 1,780,000 customers.

Revenues were up 13.7 per cent over the like period last year. The list of 1,779,761 customers June 30 was up 3.8 per cent from a year ago.

Happy Birthday

Copr. 1957 by United Feature Syndicate, Inc.

HE WHO SAW BEYOND LIFE
Gathered around a dinner table in Paris one night in 1788 were seven men and one woman. The woman was the Duchess de Grammont. The men were lawyers, courtiers and men of letters.
The subject of conversation was the impending French Revolution with the opinion of the speakers favoring it.

One man, however, remained silent, a far-away look in his eyes. He was Jacques Gazotte, well known poet of the time. As the discussion grew more and more animated, Gazotte's fellow diners wondered why the poet took no part in it. Finally the poet spoke. "The revolution will go hard on us present," he said, and lapsed back into silence. Their curiosity stirred, the assemblage demanded an explanation of the remark. Obviously against his will, Gazotte gave the following well authenticated prediction:
"All eight of us will die before the revolution ends. You, de Condorcet, will die of poison taken to cheat the executioner. You, de
Champfort, will cut your veins
22 times, but will not die for some months; you, Vic-d'Azir, will die from loss of blood after being bled
six times to relieve you of gout.
The rest of you will die on the scaffold."

The Baron's Boomerang Logic

A little observation of dictators discloses the fact they like dictatorship at what might be described as the dispensing end, but not at the receiving end, of the business.

One of Hitler's chief lieutenants, Foreign Minister Baron Constantin von Neurath, just said as much to 60,000 foreign-resident Germans from America and elsewhere gathered at Stuttgart in a great Nazi congress.

He told these faithful ones that no foreign nation has any right to curb their organizations abroad. "We will not tolerate," were his words, "discriminations by foreign governments of Germans within their boundaries because of Nazi affiliations."

"We must demand that Germans abroad be permitted to live their lives according to the principles which apply in their German fatherland."

Of course, this is perfectly true, insofar as it applies to Germans living in the United States, the British empire, France, the Scandinavian countries and other democracies. The Germans' rights there will be respected, and always have been respected.

But Von Neurath and his boss, Herr Hitler, know quite well that what he says is not true in a Fascist country like Italy. It is not true in Soviet Russia. It is not true in the army-dominated Japan.

Nor, turning the picture around, is it true at all of foreign-resident Americans, Britons, Frenchmen or Scandinavians living in Germany. An American dwelling in Germany loses his traditional rights of free speech, free press, freedom to assemble and freedom to voice grievances which apply to HIS fatherland.

The earnest baron addressing his Nazi countrymen thought, of course, that he was making an eloquent presentation of the Nazi cause. What he really proved was the eternal and basic value of the democratic system.

An average American is a man who works hard all winter to fill his home with comforts and conveniences, and spends his summer in trailers, tourist cabins, fishing boats and mountain shacks getting along nicely without comforts and conveniences.

A Peculiarity of Fear

Have you noticed how often the things you most fear are those you have the least reason to fear?

The question is suggested by an episode narrated in a volume we just have been reading, "Up and Down California," the journal of Prof. William H. Brewster. In it he tells of experiences in the early 60's during the progress of this state's first geological survey.

The survey party had just worked its way through the Monterey and Watsonville sections and was studying the mountain country back of San Jose. While saddling a mule Professor Brewster suddenly was aware that he was standing on a rattlesnake. He stepped back and the rattler wriggled free. The scientist reached for a compass tripod, pinned down the snake, cut off his head with a bowie knife, and later removed three large poison fangs and the nine rattles.

His son records the rest of the incident: "After cutting off the rattles and head and wrapping them in a piece of paper, he put them in his pocket and proceeded down the mountain. He had traveled but a short distance when he decided to go back and measure the rattler. As he started to straighten out the snake, in order to measure it with his tape, the body coiled and struck him on the wrist with the stump where the head had been."

"Although he knew there was absolutely no danger, as the head, fangs and poison sac were in his pocket, he was so unnerved by the incident that it was some time before he could remount his mule and resume his journey."

A perfect example of the fact that our fear often is unreasonable.

Isn't there a Tom Collins in the liquor control business in California? It seems fitting that we now have a George Stout as state liquor administrator. Stout is a milder form of liquor, but what's in a name, anyhow?

Way of All Flesh

Alas for "the greatest romance of our time!" The Duke of Windsor is getting fat.

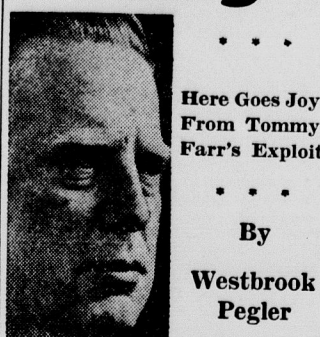

His tailor, we read in the papers, has been called upon to unreef the ducal pants and vest at the girth-line and in general make room inside for more of the duke. Meanwhile, Wally, like every young matron who sally watches the honeymoon turn into the carpet-slipper age, is chiding her husband for his sins of the table. Apparently the duke is what Artemus Ward would call a "dreadfully married" man.

Now, we've always been a great fan for adventure and romance, but we're right glad the duke is settling down. A man can't go on being a Romeo all his life. When he gets himself good and married he should act normal, like the rest of us solid yokemates. He should relax, eat plenty of food with his meals, stretch out on an easy chair after dinner with a paper and pipe and generally woo contentment. If a bit of theft begins to show itself around the midriff, well, that's only natural. Who wouldn't rather have Sir John Falstaff's "increasing belly" than yon Cassius' lean and hungry look?

We're sure going to show this clipping about the duke and Wally to the missus, and maybe she'll quit nagging about getting middle-aged. Romance? Say, how about another slab of roast beef?

If Frederick J. Libby keeps talking about putting peace above profits he is apt to be called "un-American."

Here Goes Joy From Tommy Farr's Exploit

By

Westbrooke Pegler

NEW YORK.—Wait a minute! Let us get this straight about the raw, red, flaming courage of Tommy Farr, who lost a decision to Joe Louis, who fought a shrinking fight, hit him only one right-hand punch in 15 rounds, missed him with more lefts than he landed, and was, by many expert accounts of the scuffle, afraid to lead to a notorious non-puncher lest he draw a counter.

The testimony on this fight is the most confusing that your correspondent has ever read—or written. The action was so haphazard on the part of Joe Louis that the customers gave it the owl's love-call several times, but in standing up to a left jab and nothing else worth mentioning Farr has earned the reputation of a Jimmy Hanlon or a Fay Kaiser, gentlemen of the old Garden days who could pull the Indian rope trick to come off the floor 10 or a dozen times or even 20 times. They would come up as often as they were knocked down except toward the end of their careers, when they developed a tendency to linger on the canvas. But they were pulpy by then.

FIGHTING FOOLS

Yet those boys and a few other little, lean bodies of the same type who did not fight for titles were known merely as club fighters, and instead of praising their courage press and public called them fighting fools.

Tommy Farr, on the other hand, was not hit hard enough to be knocked off his feet once, and thus didn't have to come off the boards, and it is given out now that he was fighting a one-hander from the third round because Louis broke his right in that one. This, also, is confusing, because it is in the record that the only real smash which Farr was asked to endure in proving a bravery under punishment that puts to shame the insensate rage of Battling Nelson was a right-hand delivered in the fifth, two rounds after the accident which made Joe's right useless. If it was broken and useless, how comes it that a man is another Greb or Volga or a Chuck Wiggins to absorb a punch from same?

NO SUSPICIONS

Of course, your correspondent does not doubt the broken and uselessness of Louis' right after the third round. Champions often come up with broken bones which require months to heal when they are confronted with professional and amateur problems. They even come up with X-ray pictures of the fractures to prove the damage, and only a cynic, of which your correspondent happily is not one, would suspect that the X-ray pictures ever had been lifted out of some hospital files at random as a means of deceiving the press and the readers. Such suspicions there have been in cases past, but your correspondent never shared them.

Louis' earnings for the tax year are such that a fight with Max Schmeling this fall, with the big, additional income, might run his brackets way up, so delay until the next tax year would be very profitable.

Moreover, the man whom Farr so fearlessly hustled around the ring, oblivious to left jabs in the features, is such a mediocre fighter, with so little versatility, that Schmeling is now said to be a sure thing to knock him out again and take his title. So, from the professional and economic standpoint, Louis is lucky that he did break his hand, an injury which doubtless will prevent his fighting Schmeling this fall. And let there be no scepticism regarding the injury, because the boy may ram your suspicions down your throat with X-ray prints.

Well, so Farr was one of the gamiest of them all in refusing to fall unconscious before a left jab delivered in fear and hesitancy, and Louis is injured, and Schmeling, by an ill chance, will find himself postponed until 1938, by which time, unless he violates precedent by risking his prestige in an interim fight, he will have been idle two years. That will be seven years after the savage struggle in which he won the title sitting down and more than 10 years after his American debut.

Again, a cynic might suspect that the circumstance of the broken hand—see X-ray, if in doubt—the advance of age and the effects of idleness in Schmeling, as well as income tax considerations, all jibed a little too well in postponing the defeat of Louis. But again your correspondent is no cynic, but just a true believer and a notorious sucker for X-ray pictures of broken fighters' metacarpals.

CLEVELAND.—For the average human eye to notice a change in light, the volume of illumination must be either doubled, or cut in half. This explains a lot of disputes about the office lighting.

The eye can do better in tests when a person is trying. But under average working conditions it requires a doubling of volume before most persons notice any significant improvement in seeing. This finding is from the transactions of the Illuminating Engineering society. More difficult to measure even than change in light is glare.

Another thing—increasing a window's height raises the amount of light in a room more than increasing window breadth by the same area.

The Merry-Go-Round

By DREW PEARSON and ROBERT S. ALLEN

WASHINGTON.—There is nothing imminent about it, but it would surprise none of his close friends if Henry Morgenthau resigned as secretary of the treasury.

The main reason, if he does so, would be his health. Henry has been in an overworked and nervous condition for some time now, and for several months has complained of severe headaches.

This nervousness has resulted in part in an assassination complex, with the result that before he left on his recent vacation to Honolulu, Morgenthau was constantly attended by secret service bodyguards. They worked in three shifts of eight hours each.

Chief cause of Morgenthau's nervous condition has been too much work and worry over the job of meeting the demands of New Deal spending. It is an open secret among White House intimates that many times he has urged a drastic curb in expenditures.

OBEYS ROOSEVELT

Young Henry does not exactly argue with Roosevelt. He is rather pliant about it. He doesn't conceal his worry, but once the President has made a decision, Morgenthau goes down the line and finds the money to carry out that decision.

Morgenthau's specialty, before he entered the treasury, was agriculture and conservation. He has never been exactly happy in the treasury, though on the whole he has done a good job.

Sometimes Roosevelt has felt that it would be better to have a secretary of the treasury with more experience in monetary matters, but if and when Young Henry gets out it will be only because he wants to. Roosevelt will never give him the hint to go.

Note—An almost sure bet as Morgenthau's successor, if he departs, is Joe Kennedy, brilliant chairman of the maritime commission and former head of the securities and exchange commission.

HIGH-HAT
The federal reserve board has gone high-hat since moving into its elaborate Greco-Roman palace on upper Constitution avenue.

Constructed of gleaming white marble and embellished with glittering brass eagles, the structure is one of the new show places of the capital.

The pompous formality of the new establishment is in keeping with its lavishness. Official guards in swanky uniforms clutter the place and treat visitors with hauteur.

A recent caller on Chairman Marriner Eccles was stopped at a guard who demanded to know his business. Informed, he admitted the visitor and directed him to a certain elevator.

On the proper floor, the visitor again was halted by a guard who inquired his business. When told, he said, "I will have to announce you." He did this by phoning Eccles' office.

"It's okay," he observed, "Mr. Eccles will see you."

"Where is his office?"

"I don't know," the guard replied, "I'm new here. I'll call another guard who knows the joint and he will show you."

The Mailbag

Public opinion, or what somebody in office imagines to be public opinion, is our ruler. If public opinion is active, the politicians and people sit up and take notice. There is a definite need for outspoken talking and thinking on public matters. Honest, intelligent fair discussion of our problems is immensely useful. So that every citizen may have his say and contribute to the formation of public opinion, The Journal invites letters to The Mailbag.

PEGLER AGAIN

To the Editor: Here is another subscriber who is bored with Mr. Pegler's articles appearing in The Journal. I repudiated the Register because of just such articles written by David Lawrence, when I subscribed to The Journal with the hope that such articles would not disgrace the editorial page of The Journal.

I wonder if Mr. Pegler is a high powered writer employed by the press of the country to pervert the truth and substitute falsehood.

The vote for Roosevelt in 1936 came near being unanimous, the press and a few Tories opposing him.

And do we now have to lament the fact that it is the press and the same Tories opposing most all of the measures proposed by the President, that would help the common man a little?

Is this great noise we hear just to keep the masses in slavery? ACE JOB.

DRUNK DRIVING WRECKS

If a person under the influence of liquor went out on the highways of this state with a high-powered rifle, shooting at passers-by, he would be given a long term in jail.

Why, then, should it be possible for a man to go out on the highways of this state in an intoxicated condition and place lives and property in jeopardy through the operation of a high-powered motor vehicle?

Why should such a menace be dealt with according to law in such a comparatively lenient manner?

The man who attempts to operate a motor vehicle under the influence of liquor or the man who deliberately drinks liquor while in charge of a motor car is as great a menace to life and property on the streets and highways as the drunken driver with his rifle or the drunken driver with his wrecking tactics.

One Man's Opinion

By X REPORTER

ORBITS
About the time that Finsler's comet paused in its flight to wave hello to earth, an old friend of one of my early-day orbits was zooming out of the forgotten void to say hello to me.

Always a good news gatherer and dispenser, my friend gave me a virtually complete log of the lives and affairs of a 100 friends or more whose orbits have not touched mine for (lo) these many years.

One friend, the first real "star" reporter I ever knew, has built himself a tier of little houses on a friendly beach on a sunny coast, and lives with, by and for the passerby, of which there is a never-failing crop in that locality.

Another friend has reached the very top of the heap in his chosen calling, and shines forth from the firmament of the great in New York City.

Still another has more or less cornered a certain line of business in the old home city, and represents big business in the circle of which we were all formerly a part. One of the most promising members of my circle of youngsters of several decades ago got caught in a web of circumstance and law—all who know him are still certain his purpose was honest—and he spent several years as a guest of Uncle Sam in one of the more commodious of the nation's prisons. What a life!

There are here and there his experiences in a way that is said to be almost classical.

What was at one time a rather compact and definable cluster of individuals has shifted, widened and thinned until even my friend, who has been near the center or nucleus of the galaxy all the while, has lost touch with many former comrades.

Boys and girls we used to dance and sail and swim and picnic with are now the parents of grown-up children we have not even seen. Many of them are grandparents.

The circle has in it many new faces and personalities. Some have come to it from distant parts unknown to us. The circle is ever widening and expanding, like some star-gazers declare the universe to be.

My friend could stop just for a few hours, and then was gone again on the long elliptic flight back to his own ordinary universe. Our orbits probably won't cross again for many years.

McINTYRE

NEW YORK.—Every trained New York detective and those who smile at the figure so often described by writers as "a shifty-eyed crook." There is a general belief that the guilty cannot look one in the eye. The bigger the crook the steeper his gaze, as a rule.

Long ago Charles Dickens expressed a truth with: "There is a mistaken belief about bad men being unable to look you in the face. Don't trust the idea. Dishonesty will stare honesty out of countenance any day in the week if there is anything to be gained by it."

Some of the shyest and gentlest men I have ever known, men who have a lifetime of honesty and purpose and ideals behind them, are unable to look squarely into the eyes of their most intimate friends. I knew a banker whose gaze was frank and open. He was indicted and missed prison by an eye-lash.

Mae Linnell confessed he could not look his own mother squarely in the eye. Along Broadway the boys who stare at you on the back as heartily can not only look you directly in the eye but can, if they so desire, lift your wallet while doing so.

Don Marquis lies propped up in bed at Forest Hills looking out at the trees. His convalescence has been tedious but steadily he improves. He likes company but can say only a few words. Someone asked him if he thought up poems as he lay there, imprisoned, but he looked sad and the visitor wished he hadn't. His sister has made marionettes of the characters of his famous poem, Noah, Jonah and Captain Jack Smith.

Every club still has in its membership one or two of that rarity, a gentleman of the old school, so called. Urbanity, politeness, affability and courtesy are amenities disappearing from social life. The late Vivian Burnett, reputedly the original of his mother's famous novel, "Little Lord Fauntleroy," had such manners. His contacts were made with smiles and cheerfulness, his face was always lighted up. I doubt if any of his fellows ever caught him in an ill humor. His was the humor without barb and his personality had charm. He had eternal youth and his death, trying to save others on a yacht, was noble. A truly gentle soul.

Dick Simon, of the publishing firm, is such an authority on amateur photography he is publishing a book on the subject. He is also cheer leader of an amateur crowd of photographers. On a recent stunt excursion of celebrities, Life lent him a $500 camera. He took about 50 candid shots. When he turned in the camera for developing, they found he had put in all the films back-side-to-side—and he didn't get a picture.

Reflection: My rule eating out is that if there's anything on the menu of fare that I've never eaten before, I'll try it for pure gastronomic experience and education. But in years of experimenting I've never found anything so satisfactory as the dishes I loved when a boy—fried mush, thin cut round steaks, deep dish apple pie with mick cream, etc. All talk of taste in eating is hosh. We are made of what we love the things that in youth gave us greatest pleasure and thrill and all the King's stewards and cooks cannot awaken those emotions. To speak of anything you get the best anything is relative. Most people are allergic to what they like best.

Thingumbobs: Max Schmeling thinks no cinema clown comparable to Chaplin... Efram Zimbalist is always seated at the James Hunker table at Luchow's... Theodore Dreiser is abandoning his Westchester estate for Washington Square.
